(Miss McKell Tokio, July 3, 10.10 a. m.-The Vladiostok squadron eluded Vice-Admiral Kamimura's squadron, eastward of the Island of Tsu, on Friday night, in the darkness. A dazling rain and fog favored the Russian vessels. The Island, and the Japanese south of Tsu apart. The Russians bolted to the by Vice-Adm ral Kamimura. The latter chased them at full speed. The Japanese torpedo boats steamed ahead Japanese torpedo boats steamed anead and entered within the range of the Russian guns. The Russian vessels shelled the Japanese torpedo boats. This firing explains the cannonading heard on Tsu Island, and gave rise to the belief that a general engagement was im progress. Vice-Admiral Kamimura gained on the Russian ships, and was only five miles in the rear, when suddenly at 9 m. all the Russian suddenly at 9 p. m., all the Russian vessels extinguished their lights and disappeared in the darkness. At that time the Japeness torpedo boats were pressing the Russians who had been asing their searchlights. The torpedo

DECREASE IN HOGS

Says the Toronto World :-Owing to the great scarcity of corn which product is the principal feed on which the Kent County hog is raised and fattened, the percentage of swine raised for the market in this swine raised for the market in this vicinity will suffer a marked decrease this year, and with the gloomy prospect for the corn crop in the coming season, farmers state that hogs will be even scarcer next year. Stockraisers will go in more for cattle. There is very little difference in the number of cattle being prepared for the market this year in camparison with last, but as pasture is not as with last, but as pasture is not as with last, but as pasture is not as good, a larger acreage is required to feed them.

Sheep have not been popular with Kent farmers in the past years, scarcely any mutton being noticed on the market for some time, but with the exit of the hog, sheep will probably become more in evidence.

In regard to prices, stockmen say that the price paid for beeves is comparatively better than it was at this time last year, but that hogs are not profitable as heretofore. profitable as heretofore.

BALFOUR WILL NOT RESIGN

ply Closure - Attitude of the Liberals.

Do Not Want at the Present Time to Handle Reins Of Govern-

London, July 2 .- It is nine years ago to-day since the Conservatives entered on their long lease of office, Lord Salisbury having become Prime Minister for the third and last time, July 2, 1895. Lord Halsbury, the Lord High two squadrons met early in the even- | Chancellor, and Lord Ashbourne, the ing, the Russians being north of Iku Lord Chancellor of Ireland, are the only two ministers who hold the same They were then ten miles posts as they did then. In spite of incessant attacks on the Government in north-cast, when they were d'scovered | Parliament during the past week, and the difficulty of maintaining anything like normal majorities, there is no reason to believe that Premier Balfour has any present intention of ten-dering his resignation, for have the Liberal leaders at this moment any real desire to attempt to force him to take this step. Mr. Balfour recognizes that it is not in accord with strict parliamentary principles to transact the nation's business by means of the closure, as he proposes doing for the remainder of the session. But the Premier pointed out in the House of Commons yesterday that in view of the persistent obstruction tactics of the Opposition to all the Government's main legislation, there was no other course open to him. Mr. Balfour desires to remain in power at real desire to attempt to force him Balfour desires to remain in power at least until important pending ques-tions are settled, such as Tibet and the Russo-Japanese war, and he also is determined to carry through the largest domestic legislation promised in the King's speech, for instance, the Adien Bill and the bill to compensate owners of saloons for the depri-vation of their licenses when the Government reduces the number of such houses. The Government is not seek-ing to curtail the session of Parliament and does not expect an adjourn ment until late in August. The atti-tude of the Liberal leaders in the House of Commons, in desiring the re-tention of Mr. Balfour in power grows out of their opposition to Lord Spencer, the Liberal leader in the House of Lords, who, in case the Gov-ernment resigns, would naturally be selected to be the new Premier. More-over, they do not wish at the pres-ent time to undertake the manage-ment of some of the questions now conding.

WEDDED THIS MORNING

At St. Joseph's Church, at 6 o'clock his morning, the marriage ceremony bonds of matrimony Miss Jennie Miller, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller, Harvey St., to John W Dezell, from Anaconda, Montana, for merly a Chathamite.

Miss Annie Miller, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Bert Miller, brother of the bride, was best

The bride looked very pretty indeed in brown broadcloth over brown taffeta, with picture hat to match, carrying white carnations, while the bridesmaid wore pink voile over pink taffeta, and carried pink carnations. After the ceremony had been per-formed by Rev. Fr. James, adjourna-ment was made to the bride's home on Harvey street, where a sumptuous
