MET DEFEAT

The Good Rink and the Legal Rink Bowl on the Tecumseh Park Lawn -The Lawyers the Victors-

Saturday afternoon the famous ministerial rink of bowlers were downed by the lawyers in a friendly match. Since their defeat of the rink skipped by the redoubtable John Lee, the good r.nk has been somewhat elated. They lay the cause of their defeat on the Crown Attorney and W. E. Gundy. They say that the powerful legal expletives used by these two lawyers during the progress of the game so rattled them that they got excited and if there is one thing you should not do in a game of bowls, it is get excited. The man who made the game didn't figure on having any exget excited. The man who made the game didn't figure on having any excitement in it. During the progress of the game Skipp MacGallivray paused to remark with evident disgust to Mr. Mallott, who had just delivered a ball—"You're narrow." Then as an after thought, he continued—"we're all narrow." The Crown Attorney wanted to know if this was any forecast of the morrow's sermon. Want ng to know." is one of Mr. Smith's strong points. When the game ended the score was 13 to 15 in favor of the law as against the church. The ministerial rick—The Rav. Mr. Hoyt, Rev. Mr. Cobbledick, Rav. Mr. Mallott and Rev. PARENTS DIDN'T CARE

Friday afternoon two little girls were in the cabin of the City of Chatham playing on the piano, when two lads chased then out. In the chasing process one of the boys took a dollar one of the little girls had. The boy was arrested and pleaded guilty to the charge this morning. He could not be tried, however, as neither his father or mother appeared. The lad has appeared on two former occasions on similar charges. The boy sobbed pitifully and asked to be let go home until to-morrow.

Judge Houston said that the lad's Judge Houston said that the lad's father apparently didn't think enough of him fo care whether he went to jail or the penitentiary or not. "Step-father, not father, your honor," interposed Chief Holmes,
The lad will receive his trial tomorrow. The police believe that the boys were really down at the boat to forage lunch haskets.
