Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eaton, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church, New York City, who with Mrs. Eaton and family is spending his vacation in his native province, occupied the Baptist pulpit here last Sunday morning and preached a very able sermon. His text was taken from Isaiah 65:—'No year shall King Tishbi die; I have also the Lock and the Key; no shall there be no sin for the people perish.' The large congregation which assembled enjoyed a very great treat.

The Boy Scouts.

The first Annual Camp was held at Black River Lake from Aug. 19th, to 24th. Thirty one boys were present, also Assistant Scoutmasters Bullock and Beaver Patrols, and the Scoutmaster. The following time table was adhered to as closely as possible:

We are indebted to Mr. Bullock, Mr. Watson and Mr. Backhouse for the transportation of the Fox, Otter and Beaver Patrols respectively, and to Messrs. Bullock, Chute, Creighton, Watson and Chipman for loan of tents. We are also indebted to Mr. Bullock for great assistance at camp and for the use (or misuse) of his boat.

Next Friday evening the regular weekly meeting will be held at the Club Room from 7 to 8 o'clock. Saturday at 2 p. m. all scouts will meet at Club Room, in uniform, for 'Fire Lighting' Competition, prize, a regulation Billy Tin. This is the second competition in the series for the Chipman Prize.

On behalf of the scouts, the scoutmaster wishes to convey his gratitude to Mr. John W. Wallace for his handsome contribution to their funds, and for the kind note accompanying the same. While the scouts are forbidden to solicit funds, such a mark of appreciation is very acceptable and is a great help, not only to the boys themselves, but to those in charge as well.

Honor Again For Nova Scotia.

Mrs. J. W. Dal. Farris, of Vancouver, B. C., well known in Wolffville as Evelyn Keirstead, has been elected by a large majority to the Senate of the University of British Columbia. She was one of fifteen, chosen from fifty nominees, many of whom are men of position and influence.

Mrs. Farris is a graduate of Acadia College, and her many friends in the East rejoice in the honor conferred upon her, and are pleased to know that though devoted to home and family, she yet finds time for intellectual pursuits. For several years she was President of the University Women's Club, and is still one of its most active members.

A man went to an insurance office to have his life insured the other day. 'Do you cycle?' the insurance agent asked. 'No,' said the man. 'Do you motor?' 'Do you motor?' 'No.' 'Do you, then, perhaps fly?' 'No, no,' said the applicant laughing. 'I have no dangerous hobbies.' 'But the agent interrupted him curtly. 'Sorry, sir,' he said, 'but we no longer insure pedestrians.'
