Concert in Dalhousie, Nov 6

The Redden Family, assisted by their pupils and a male quartette, will give a grand concert in the new Hall at Dalhousie on the 6th inst.

As the troupe will remain in the hall until late at night waiting for the train they propose to give either a second program or allow a dance after the concert to while away the slow hours of the night till train time.

As the Redden Sisters and their pupils are constantly improving this concert should be even better than the one given by them in Gaspe on Aug 4th, which was admitted by every one to be a great success.

Doors open at 7.30. Concert at 8 sharp. Tickets on sale at the Mercantile Store. Reserved seats 50 and 35c unreserved 25c.

Second programme, if it takes place begins at 10.30 o'clock and ends at about midnight. Reduction in fee for second program.
