THE DAUGHTERS OF OUR LADY. At a meeting of prominent Catholic women held in New York, the nucleus of an organization of Catholic women to be known as "The Daughters of Our Lady" was formed. It is the aim of the founders to make the organization na-tional and to enlist the co-operation of representative Oatholic women throughout the United States. The scope of the organization is: to extend the influence of the Catholic press; to spread Catholic literature and encourage Catholic writers; to exert an influence against bad books and plays; to establish a better social relationship betw Catholics; to organize protection for Gatholic working girls and to better their condition; and to take a special interest in the gowing boys of the land, by studying their needs and providing them with proper safeguards as regards their moral, material and physical welfare In brief, the sociological, industrial, economic and educational prob of the times, especially as they affect Oatholics, will be carefully considered. Professor J. C. Monaghan has promised his active assistance and co-operation A number of Catholic laymen have pledged themselves to defray the expen entailed by the work of the organization Under such favorable auspices, "The Daughters of Our Lady" bids fair to be come a mighty factor in the moral, soconte a mighty factor in the moral, so-cial and spiritast aplift of our people. Catholic works uroughout the country who are incomed are requested to write to Mary G. Murphy, secretary, 4010 Lenmore Avenne, Chicago, III.
