C. E. Neill, of the Merchants' Bank, wins Distinguished Honors at Susssx.

F. H. Risteen also Proves his Accuracy with the Rifle.

Fredericton sent a strong contingent of marksmen to the annual provincial rifle ompetitions at Sussex this week, and while nearly all won prizes, the success of Chas. E. Neill, of the Merchant's bank, and F. H. Risteen, the well known court stenographer, has sent a thrill of pride through the hearts of Frederictonians. Mr. Neill's record is a splendid one and points to him as one of the best rifle shots in the province. He and Mr. Risteen have gone to Ottawa to take part in the Dominion competitions, and we trust that good accounts will be received from them. A summary of the successes of the Fredericton men at Sussex, is as follows: In the Nursery match, open to marksmen who have never won a prize at Sussex, Dr. J. W. Bridges, surgeon of the 71st batt., won fourth place, with a score of 44 pts, out of a possible 50, 45 points taking the prize. In the All Comers' match, F. H. Risteen was sixth, scoring 32 pts. in a possible 35, and C. E. Neill was 13th with 31. In the Domville match, C. E. Neill was 15th with 59 in a possible 70, and Major

Loggie was 16th with 58. In the Prince of Wales match, C. E. Neill was 13th with 70 pts., the winner, Capt Raymond of the 67th, scoring 76. In the Harper match, ten teams of five men each, the 71st men were second with 333 pts., only 8 behind the 62nd batt. who won. Major Loggie, Neill and Risteen were Fredericten's representatives on the 71st team, and their scores respectively were 63, 70 and 63. Three other teams from the 71st also competed in this match, and their individual scores included: R
