An Enjoyable Time.

The lads of Cochrane St. Church with their sisters had a most enjoyable time in the basement of the building last night. Some sixty of those present are members and are deeply interested in the Sunday morning Bible Class, and all present fully enjoyed the entertainment. Recitations were given by Masters R. Ledrew, H. Mews, Misses M. Parsons, V. Parsons and M. Mews, and solos and duets by Masters F. Godden, H. Haddon, R. Bowden, B. Bowden, Misses D. Vincent, J. Taylor and S. Le.

M.C.I. Debate.

At the M. C. L. I. last night an interesting debate was held. The subject discussed was "Is amalgamation desirable or feasible?" Messrs. I. C. Morris and S. Whiteway were selected to introduce the question, and the former dealt with it from an economic standpoint, showing that there was a deal of energy wasted in the five branch associations at present. Mr. Whiteway demonstrated in an eloquent speech the value of unity. There was an unanimous vote in favor of amalgamation.
