NEW VICEROY OF INDIA.

LONDON, Jan. 13. The Times understands that Lord Chelmsford is to be the new Viceroy of India. Lord Chelmsford is 48 years old, and has held the Governorship of both Queensland and New South Wales.

NEW PARTY FORMED TO OPPOSE OFFER OF POSITION.

LONDON, Jan. 13. Following the formation of a party last week under the leadership of Sir Edward Carson to advocate a vigorous prosecution of the war, and which has reached a membership of eighty Unionists, a similar movement, was started yesterday on the Liberal side as an offset to that section of the Liberals opposing the Military Service Bill. Sir Henry Dalziel, Sir Frederick Cawley and Sir Alfred Mond are leaders in this movement. A number of well known critics of the Government policy from the Liberal side, including Asquith, Bryce, have already joined and the hope is expressed in some quarters that these two independent movements will converge eventually, and form a national party, supporting the Government in all measures tending towards a vigorous war policy.

SUGGESTION TO REMOVE DUKES FROM BRITISH PEERAGE.

LONDON, Jan. 13. The suggestion has been made in the House of Commons that the Dukes of Cumberland and Albany, now fighting against Great Britain, should be removed from the British peerage. Premier Asquith intimated that it would be a slow process. Legislation would be necessary, which the Government was not prepared to initiate at present.

NAVAL OPERATIONS DESCRIBED.

LONDON, Jan. 13. Naval operations off the Belgian coast last summer and autumn, are described in an official despatch from Vice-Admiral H. S. Bacon, Commanding the Dover patrol, who begins by explaining the great care taken to confine the fire to purely military and naval objectives, so as to inflict a minimum loss of life and distress to the civil population, among whom were large numbers of citizens of the allied countries. In order to carry this principle into effect, it was at times necessary to modify and even to postpone projected attacks. The despatch says that the results, therefore, have been effective, rather than sensational. After speaking of the extreme accuracy of the naval fire, which he attributed as being due to the novel methods and careful training.

"CAN YOU AFFORD TO TAKE CHANCES?"

A little cold may not seem a dangerous thing—you may feel inclined to let it go on hoping that to-morrow it will be better—but can you afford to take chances? Just as the little insignificant acorn grows if let alone, to the mighty giant oak, that cough if not stopped may grow to a very serious illness. When a cough starts there's no telling where it will end. You know no doubt, of cases right among people you have known where serious complications and fatal illnesses have had their start from a neglected cough or cold.

A cold is more than inconvenient—it is dangerous—so the big thing is to find a reliable remedy—one that will give you quick, satisfactory relief.

There are many treatments that are recommended for a cough or cold but "STAFFORD'S PHORATONE COUGH AND COLD CURE" is recommended to be the safest, surest and most satisfactory way to cure a cold, gripple, etc.

Price 25 cts.; Postage 5 cts. extra. Prepared only by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld., Manufacturers of 3 Specialties: Stafford's Liniment, Stafford's Prescription "A," Stafford's Phorotone Cough & Cold Cure.

ing, Vice-Admiral Bacon reviews the various attacks on Zeebrugge and Ostend, on the western and at other points along the coast, at various dates, in brief, and sums up the damage to the Germans, which, he says, included the destruction of one torpedo boat, two submarines, one dredger, three military factories, thirteen big guns, two ammunition depots and several military storehouses, while, in addition, wharves, observation and signalling stations, and the Zeebrugge locks were damaged. The British loss consisted of three armed trawlers, of which two struck mines, and 34 men were killed and 24 wounded. Admiral Bacon says that the gunnery results exceeded his expectations. His fleet consisted of 80 vessels of various classes, manned partly by men of the regular navy, but more largely by officers and men of the Naval Reserves and Deep Sea fishermen. The protection of such a moving fleet by destroyers, in waters which are the natural home of the enemy's submarines, has been admirable, Vice-Admiral Bacon says, but still more remarkable is the aptitude shown by the officers and crews of the drifters and trawlers who, in difficult waters, and under conditions totally strange to them, maintained their allotted stations without a single accident. Moreover, these men, under fire, exhibited a coolness worthy of the personnel of a service insured to discipline. The results show how deeply adaptability is engrained in the sea-faring race of the British Islands.

NOT PERMITTED TO PROCEED.

LONDON, Jan. 13. The Downs, that portion of the North Sea off the coast of Kent, between Ramsgate and the South Foreland, is filled with ships bound for Rotterdam, which have not been permitted to proceed on their voyage. British ships are forbidden to continue their voyage to Holland, and neutral vessels are not being given the course by the Admiralty. In official circles it is said that the stoppage is due to the danger of German mines, which, they allege, have been sown along the Dutch coast, and that the vessels will not be allowed to proceed until the mines have been swept up. Among the detained ships are several belonging to the Commission for the relief of Belgium, and it is feared that if they are delayed much longer there will be a shortage of Belgian relief food.

ENEMY'S ATTACKS FAILED.

PARIS, via London, Jan. 13. The War Office to-day gave out the following statement: Between the Somme and the Aisne, last night, the enemy made a surprise attack against one of our small positions. The attack was a complete failure. In the Champagne the enemy made two surprise attacks, with hand grenades, one to the northeast of Butte De Mesnil, the other in the district of Maisons de Champagne. They were checked at once by our curtain of fire. Further information regarding the attack attempted yesterday by the Germans with the use of suffocating gases in the region of Forges, show that in the course of the operations against us, a gust of wind blew back the gases to the trenches of the enemy. Our bombardment of the enemy's line was very violent.

BELGIAN OFFICIAL.

PARIS, Jan. 13. The official statement of the Belgian War Office, issued to-night, says: Artillery activity is reported on all sides and particularly in the region to the north of Steenstraet.

LEFT FOR ROME.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 13. Cardinal Mercier, Primate of Belgium, departed on Tuesday evening for Rome.

CARRIED OFF BY TURKS.

LONDON, Jan. 13. The British colony in Bagdad, consisting of two men, nine women and a number of children, have been carried off by the Turks in the direction of Mosul, 300 miles distant. News of the deportation of the colony was transmitted to London through the United States Ambassador Morgenthau, and the American Consul at Bagdad, and those officials have been asked to obtain all available information. The members of the colony were removed in the latter part of November when British troops were threatening the city.

INCREASE IN FOOD PRICES.

LONDON, Jan. 13. A despatch to the Times from Petrograd, states that the Government is making a serious attempt to eradicate the evils of hoarding and speculation that is responsible for the unprecedented rise of the prices of commodities. One of the most prominent flour speculators of Moscow was the first to be arrested. This action was followed by the arrest of fifteen flour speculators of Petrograd. Two Zemstvo Councillors of Nizhni Novgorod have been found guilty of cornering the local sugar market and other necessities. Further arrests are expected, while railway officers who accept bribes will hereafter be dealt with by military courts.

SADAGORA REPORTED CAPTURED.

LONDON, Jan. 13. News from the eastern front of the capture of Sadagora, is regarded in military circles as probably true, although no official announcement of the subject has been received. The town lies a few miles to the northeast of Czernowitz, and is a converging point for five good roads of considerable strategic importance. Previous attempts to capture it have been stoutly resisted by the Austrians. Experts say that Sadagora is really of more importance than Czernowitz, on account of its stronger natural positions and the greater facilities which it affords for communication purposes. The report from Petrograd that the offensive in Galicia and Besarabia had been suspended for the present, as regards the least, premature. The offensive which recently has been in progress on the part of the Russians could not, it is believed, be suspended suddenly, as it had been undertaken after careful preparation, and launched with unexpected strength.

RETURNED TO THE FRONT.

ROME, Jan. 13. Lieut.-General Count Cadorna, Commander-in-Chief of the Italian Army, returned to the front to-day after 20 days' furlough. King Victor Emmanuel began his furlough yesterday. This is also limited to 20 days, and the King will employ his time in visiting the bases of operations of the Italian fleet.

CORFU OCCUPIED.

LONDON, Jan. 13. French soldiers occupied the Achilleon, on which the French flag was hoisted. The occupation of Corfu, say the advices from Athens, is a repetition of what has happened on other Greek Islands. The matter has been taken under consideration by the Greek Cabinet, and a protest against the occupation of Corfu, which is being formulated, is expected to be more energetic than previous protests sent to the Entente Powers. It is understood that the landing of French troops is preparatory to the transference there of a portion of the Serbian army for the purpose of rest and refitting. The Achilleon was occupied in 1890 for the residence of Elizabeth of Austria. The Villa was purchased in 1907 by the German Emperor, General Putnik, Commander-in-Chief of the Serbian army has arrived at Corfu, according to an Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. He is accompanied by his family and the Superior Serbian official.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs. Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat. Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without injurious drugs.

Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont.

cers. It is believed in Athens that the arrest of the Austrian and German Consuls at Corfu is certain to follow. The correspondent telegraphs that British and French ships have landed in Albania, food supplies for 150,000 Serbs.

TO SAVE THE SEEDS FROM FAMINE AND DESTRUCTION.

PARIS, Jan. 13. Ministers of the Allied Powers at Athens have handed a note to the Greek Government declaring that they regard it as a clear duty to humanity to transport, as soon as possible, part of the Serbian army to a point near the Albanian coast, according to a Havas despatch from Athens. The note sets forth that this step is taken in order to save these heroic soldiers from famine and destruction, and that the Island of Corfu has been chosen for the purpose, as offering the necessary facilities from the point of view of sanitation and food supply. The Powers go on to say they do not suppose Greece will object to the proposed transfer of the Serbians who are the allies of Greece, and who will only remain a short time on the Island. The note concludes by saying that there is no intention of occupation, as all guarantees have been given under this head to the Greek Government, both concerning Corfu and other parts of Greek territory, which the Allied troops have had to use.

ENEMY ATTACK SALONIKA DEFENSES.

ROME, Jan. 13. An Athens despatch to the Giornale D'Italia says an attack by the Teutonic Allies on the Entente positions has begun with a bombardment of the British lines in the Dolran zone which lasted the entire day. The attacking troops are distributed as follows: The Germans on the west front around Monastir, the Bulgarians on the Givell-Dolran line, the Turks on the east flank. The correspondent reports that a bombardment of the British line to the Dolran zone proceeded all day Monday. The German commander of the attacking force, says the correspondent, will make use of Austrian, Bulgarian and Turkish forces. The participation of the Turks had been doubtful, he adds, but it is now certain that they will be included in the attacking army.

FRENCH BLOW UP RAILROAD BRIDGE.

SALONIKA, via London, Jan. 13. The important railroad bridge over the Struma River at Demerhisar, has been blown up by French engineers, as a precautionary measure.

CHINESE REVOLUTION.

LONDON, Jan. 13. Many Chinese revolutionaries were killed and captured in a series of bloody engagements on Jan. 6, 7 and 8, in the district of Tamsui, Potong, Yenzuaw and Pekio, according to information received from the Canton Government by the British authorities at Hong Kong.

A Hong Kong despatch says that the rebels were well supplied with arms, munitions and military uniforms. They fought until their ammunition was exhausted, when they continued to struggle with bombs. Ultimately the revolutionaries were routed, and many of them, including some of the leaders were killed or taken prisoners. The Government forces also captured munitions and horses. Various garrisons were engaged in following the traces left by the rebels who escaped, with the object of exterminating them.

JAPANESE PREMIER'S NARROW ESCAPE.

TOKIO, Jan. 13. Count Okuma, the Japanese Premier, had a narrow escape from death early to-day at the hands of assassins. He was returning from the Royal Palace shortly after midnight, and was approaching his residence, when two bombs were hurled at his auto; the Premier was not injured.

SPEAKER OF THE COMMONS.

OTTAWA, Jan. 13. Dr. Albert Selwyn, M.P., is elected Speaker of the Commons. The formal opening of the House takes place to-day.

AUSTRIA AND MONTENEGRO.

LONDON, Jan. 14. It was learned here last night that Austria and Montenegro had come to an armistice, this being construed as the last act of the little country after having its capital Cetinje dominated by the Austrians capture of Mount Lovcen.
