Closing Exercises of Mercy Convent.

At the closing exercises of the Convent of Mercy, Military Road, held yesterday afternoon in the Casino Theatre, there was a large gathering of friends and supporters of the school. Among them were: His Excellency the Governor and Miss Harris, who were accompanied by Capt. Campbell, A.D.C., His Grace Archbishop Roche, Rt. Rev. Mons. McDermott, Rev. Drs. Greene, Carter and McGrath, Rev. Frs. Renouf, Conway, Sheehan, Pippy and Coady, Lady Horwood and a number of the Christian Brothers. The entertainment opened with the three-act opera "Pearl the Fishermidwife," in which the performers acquitted themselves in a very pleasing manner. The principal characters were represented by Misses Mary Wylie, Pauline Campbell, Olive Devereaux, Mary Emerson, Lillian Sullivan, Dorothy Barter, Agnes McManis, Mabel McGrath, Mollie Ellis and Angela McGrath. Between the acts a song and recitation were rendered by Misses Marjorie Gleason and Bessie O'Neill Primin. Great credit is due the performers, also Mr. Hutton, their instructor, and Mr. J. C. Pippy who acted as stage manager. Miss Harris graciously presented the prizes to the winners, following which His Grace the Archbishop in an eloquent address publicly welcomed His Excellency to our shores, which he felt it was his duty to do, although he had already extended his private greetings. His Excellency, His Grace considered, was a half Newfoundland-er, and he had been assured, retained the happiest recollections of his youth in this city. The fact that His Excellency had only arrived on the day of the closing of St. Bon's College prevented him from attending that event, but after all it was peculiarly fitting that his first public appearance should be at the closing exercises of His Excellency's Old School, Bishop Field College, to which he was bound by many ties. In conclusion, His Grace complimented the Sisters and children on the excellence of their performance and announced that the entertainment would be repeated next week in the Episcopal Library in aid of the Halifax Relief Fund. His Excellency on behalf of himself and Miss Harris made a very pleasing reply in which he thanked His Grace for his remarkably kind words of welcome and also for his generous allusions to Bishop Field College. He complimented the pupils on their excellent performance also paying a high tribute to the untiring efforts of the good Sisters of Mercy. "The Little Sisters of Mercy" was a collection of words than which few in the language were more expressive of all that is noble and good, and if Germany had been imbued with that mercy and truth which they ad-

Our Pal of Long Ago.

(In Memory of Capt. O'Brien.)
R. J. P.
This Xmas time unlike the past
His sorrow mixed with joy,
Staves re-appear of days gone by
When he was but a boy.
We pass the store where at Xmas time
Our hearts were wont to roam,
We see the window that he dressed
For Xmas neat and bright.
Modest, retiring, good was he,
Light-hearted, full of sport,
No thought of warfare crossed his mind,
No quarrel did he court;
But when the war clouds gathered
He felt his place was there,
To lead the lads he loved so well
In protecting Homeland dear.
Since then, oh, what a change has come,
What hardships he's endured,
Midst Hell on earth he fought so well
Where thundering cannons roared.
Yes, there he showed us his quite plain
How little did we know
In time of Peace of his gallantry
As he worked at his Xmas show.
Now sadness comes, steals over the heart,
And then a thrill of pride,
For tho we are sad we are also proud
Of the way that our hero died,
And to-night as we look in the window
bright
With his Merry Xmas show
It reflects just a glimpse of that joy
That is his
Our Pal of long ago.

Obituary.

Mrs. Michael Kennedy, of 35 1/2 Cabot Street, received a message this morning stating the sad news that her sister, Mrs. Ellen Matte, of 47 East Young Street, and her three children: Marguerite, 1 year; Mouson Murray, 12 years old; and John Murray, 10 years old, had all perished in the recent fire at Halifax. Mrs. Matte leaves to mourn her husband, Philip Matte, of Halifax, and two sisters and four brothers in Newfoundland. To the heart-stricken family we extend our sincere sympathy.

C.C.C. Band Dance.

The C. C. C. Band monthly dance takes place on Wednesday next, St. Stephen's night, December 26th, in the C. C. C. New Hall, at 9.15.

The tickets on this occasion will only be $1.00 double; Lady's 50c, for two reasons, firstly on account of the Food Control regulations the Band have decided not to ask their Lady friends for cakes, etc., and secondly, they think it unfair to have to ask the same kind friends on every occasion for donations and help to serve the supper for their monthly dances. But a few lady friends have kindly consented to serve tea, during a short interval without eatables. This dance is for the benefit of the Band's running expenses, such as rent, light, etc., and therefore should have a large attendance of supporters.—adv.

McMurdo's Store News

SATURDAY, Dec. 22, 1917.

We have opened just in time for Christmas the following very fine Perumes of Vivandou: Janum Arly, Rose Arly, Violet Arly, Lilas Arly, Lady Mary, La Boheme—the whole forming a selection which for quality has rarely been matched.

A new lot of Page and Shaw's Chocolates. Some very fine ones.

Also something very special in Ladies' and Gent's Hair Brushes of English manufacture, and a line of English Hot Water Bottles, these latter with flannel covers.

Prospero Off.

The S.S. Prospero, Capt. A. Kean, got away this morning for northern ports. She took the biggest freight for the season, being filled on deck and below. The following saloon passengers went:—S. Parsons, E. Parsons, W. Dawe, G. Reid, P. Winsor, L. Biles, C. Hann, Dr. Bennett, G. Jones, W. Jones, L. Reid, Scammel, M. Glavine, E. Malmont, N. Bishop, P. Hann, M. Duggan, A. Bussey, M. James, H. The Cathedral Men's Bible Class will meet tomorrow afternoon in the Synod Building at 3 o'clock. The address will be given by Dr. W. W. Blackall, who is always a welcome visitor to the class, and whose words are brim full of interest and helpfulness. The collection at the class tomorrow will be given to the Orphanage Fund. In times such as we are now passing through the Orphanage, like all other institutions, feels the strain upon its finances and greater help is necessary to meet its expenses. No doubt there will be a large attendance and a substantial offering. Visitors in the city are cordially welcome.

NOTE OF THANKS.

Mrs. John Browning wishes to thank Mrs. Fred Rennie and all the workers of the Vigornia Red Cross Branch who contributed so generously to a shower of Christmas gifts for the Jensen Camp.—adv.11

Bradbury Boys Safe.

Mr. Henry Bradbury received word from England yesterday stating that his son Sergt. Edward C. Bradbury, of "Ours" who was confined to the 3rd London General Hospital suffering from wounds received while fighting in France is now convalescent. Mr. Bradbury also received word from his two sons, Harry and Harold. The former is in the Canadian Patrol service and the latter employed as a carpenter in Halifax. At the time of the great explosion Harold was on the roof of a house making some repairs, but fortunately escaped serious injury, while a number of others in the vicinity were killed. The ship on which Harry is serving put to sea a short while before the explosion occurred.

SURVIVED DISASTER.

Messrs. Richard Squires and Joseph Taylor, who are well known here, both of whom were working along the waterfront at Halifax have survived the awful disaster. Their friends in St. John's will be glad to hear this.

CITY'S HEALTH.

Infectious disease is on the increase in the city and last evening two more new cases of diphtheria were reported to the Health authorities from residences on Mundy Pond Road and Monroe St. The patients, who were boys, were removed to hospital.

FAMILY QUARREL.

A married couple whose views differed on a topic relative to the household eventually had an altercation resulting in hubby being summoned to court today, charged with assault. Neither party appeared when their names were called and the case was struck off the docket.

NOTE OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrick desire to thank the legion of kind friends who visited or in any way helped to make the time of their daughter's illness feel happier by their kindness and sympathy. For wreaths: Miss M. Battcock, the Misses Battcock and Scott Lambert, Symonds, Doherty, Grant, Hewardine, Willar and snow.—adv.

AN EVENTFUL TRIP.

The S.S. Porcia, which is due here this evening, is experiencing the longest and most eventful trip for the season on the South-Western route. She would have got here this morning, but for the dense fog prevailing. On her way west she had to contend with a series of storms, during which she was successful in rescuing from destruction an American steamer near Port aux Basques.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—KING GEORGE AND THE SUPPLY.

King George has just completed very interesting three days' visit to the docks of London. When in Wales he was Chairman of the Committee on Food Supplies in the War, and has always been particularly interested in the London organization of the distribution. He saw two completed dock schemes, part of the expansion that has taken place since the war. When they are completed half a million carcasses will be used for grain. Another new scheme designed for the biggest type of merchant ship.
