Last night at the Armoury Headquarters of the First Battalion Church Lads Brigade Cadets, the annual presentation of the Outerbridge Shield took place at 8 o'clock. Quite a galaxy of ladies fair and gentlemen attended the exhibition. His Excellency the Governor, Sir Chas. Harris, accompanied by Capt. Hamilton, Private Secretary, were in attendance. The Government House party were received by Lt.-Col. R. F. Goodridge and Rev. Lieut. Fletcher, Assistant Adjutant. The programme opened up at 8 o'clock with His Excellency inspecting the Battalion. Physical drill followed with gymnastics by C. Co's Veterans, under Major Raley in full force. The physical drill was under command of Captain Avalon Goodridge, who was in particularly good form. The next item was the exhibition of pyramids, under Sgt.-Major Rendell, who used Lieut. Miles, the Battalion heavyweight, as the concrete base. The pyramids were constructed on a solid foundation and were extremely erected. The big feature was the "Wrestling Match" between Armourer Sgt. Adams and Sgt. Inst. Alec Hennebury, M.M. M.M. The referee was War Veteran Sgt. Inst. Alec Hennebury, M.M., late of the Royal Nfld. Regt. The match was well contested—the falls being won by the Veteran Sgt. Hammond in 6, and 4 minutes respectively. Better luck Adams next time. The next item was the Regt. March Past—His Excellency the Governor taking the salute. The shield offered for competition by Col. Sir Joseph Outerbridge to the lads of the Brigade for smartness in drill, payment of brigade dues, and attendance—won by points—the judging officer being Lt.-Col. Goodridge, C.L.B. The shield was won by No. 1 Section F. Company, under command of Corporal Eric Ewing of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Corp. Ewing was so pleased with his squad winning the shield that he treated the N.C.O.'s to light refreshments afterward. The squad will be entertained later. Corp. Ewing won by 3 points over Sgt. E. W. Best—both sections were very keen competitors. The next section was Sgt. Stone's squad. His Excellency then addressed the lads and expressed his regrets that Lady Harris could not attend. His Excellency was pleased to inform the lads that he had great pleasure to know the Brigade was affiliated with the King's Royal Rifle Corps and that in future as soon as arrangements were completed he would be more closely identified with the Battalion as the representative of His Majesty's War Office. A large number of people were present last night to see the lads at work. We noticed amongst others Mrs. R. F. Goodridge, wife of the O.C., Mr. and Mrs. Phil Knowling, Rev. Jacob Brinton, Battalion Chaplain, Rev. J. T. Hiscock of Newton, and others. Last night's show was well conducted and everybody went home happy—Q.

Fire Companies Busy.

At 7.15 last night an alarm of fire was rung in from Plank Road. The Central and West End Fire Companies responded in quick time. On arriving they found the home of Mr. R. Waddleton ablaze, with flames bursting through the roof. The Western chemical engine was put to work and in less than five minutes the fire was extinguished. Considerable damage was caused the premises.
