

Don't Delay Another Day!

The time to fix your roof is now—while the weather is warm.

If you put felt or rubber roofing on your roof in warm weather it will fit snugly to your roof, won't crack, won't bag and will give you greater satisfaction. DO IT NOW.

If your roof is in fair condition, just small cracks here and there, fix these cracks with LASTY-GUM—it stops leaks. Lasty Gum is sold in 5-pound pails, at $1.50 each.

If your roof is in good condition, give it a coat of Special Roof Coating, which will keep it good for another two or three years. Remember, Prevention is better than Cure.

Don't wait for your roof to leak; prevent it from leaking by coating it now. A 5-gallon can of Special Roof Coating will cost you only $3.50.

If your roof needs a new covering we recommend VULCANITE ROOFING, which we sell in full 36 inch size rolls to cover 100 square feet at $5.00 per roll complete with nails and cement. Vulcanite is made and guaranteed by the Beaver Board Company.

We can also supply VULCANITE ROOFING in 18 inch widths, containing a double supply of nails and cement at $5.40 per roll, to cover 100 square feet.

Congo Rubberized Roofing full size rolls to cover 100 square feet, $3.75 per roll, complete with enough nails and cement to put on your roof immediately.

We can also supply you with Red or Green Sanded Roofing, but we do not recommend it. Vulcanite either 36 inch or better still 18 inch is more durable.

Hexagon Rubberized Shingles are better than wood shingles; they require no painting, won't turn up with the wind and are absolutely fire-proof; $13.00 per square of 100 square feet. You can see them on dwelling house No. 86 Duckworth Street; they're worth looking at.

We also have in stock Builders' Roofing Pitch in small barrels; Paving Pitch, Coal Tar in tierces and barrels; Pine Tar, Leptyne, a turpentine substitute, in 5-gallon cans for painters' use, at $5.00 per can.

We have just received one thousand rolls of Barrett's Red Seal Board Roofing Felt.

MOSHER-JAYNES.

Wedding Took Place In Mt. Bellingham Church.

The Mt. Bellingham Methodist Church was the scene of a delightful wedding on the evening of August 14th, when Florence Bertha Jaynes of 143 Bellingham St., became the bride of David B. Mosher of Ashley, Ohio. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Arthur D. Stroud, pastor of the church. The decorations of peach blossoms, white asters and palms, gracefully hung along the sides of the aisles all about, were very attractive. Miss Edith M. Jaynes, the bridesmaid and George W. Mosher, best man, while acting as ushers were: John Guy, A. W. Parsons, A. E. Keyser and John C. Taylor. The bride was gowned in white tulle with a wreath of orange blossoms and was caught in place with sprays of the same flower. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was attired in blue organdie and she wore a picture hat with plumes and tiny roses. A reception from 8.30 to 9.30 in the church parlor followed the ceremony. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor, presented her attendant with a wrist watch, also. The best man received a gold knife and the ushers, gold pieces. The gifts to the couple were many and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Mosher have gone to the groom's home in Ohio for their wedding trip.—Chelsea Record.

The parents of the bride are natives of Carleton Place and amongst those who attended the function were the following from Newfoundland.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Parsons and family (cousins of the bride), Mr. and Mrs. John C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Webber, all of St. John's, and a number of friends who formerly lived in Carleton Place.

Wabana Championship.

FINAL GAME GIVES BELL ISLAND CUP TO C.C.C.

After a series of games, in which real surprises were the outstanding feature, the Kent-Shea-Lwyer Cup has once more gone to the Cadet Football Club. Seldom has there been a season in which the final outcome was more doubtful, and the fact that the Fire Brigade had won the Trophy last year and were equally determined to retain it, while the Orange Young Britons had fully organized, and were in excellent training, made it all the more difficult to surmise the victors. The several draws at the commencement of the season, and the uncertainty of the postponed games made the interest all the more intense, and when the Orange Young Britons faced the Fire Brigade on Friday evening, it was felt in many sections that victory would go to the former—as they were in excellent training and condition—and that the final tussle for the Championship would be between the Cadets and Britons. Fortune, however, favoured the C.C.C. after a long period of bad luck, for the Fire Brigade scored in the first half, and although the Britons secured the equalizer, and struggled desperately for another, they could not beat the Fire-Fighters goalkeeper, and the final whistle found the game a draw—one goal being scored on each side—thus leaving the Championship trophy in the hands of the Cadets. For the Britons, Spencer, Stewart and the Mews boys undoubtedly played splendidly, while Les Kennedy, R. L. Stevenson, "Rocky" Whelan and J. Ryan were the strength of the Fire Brigade team.

Mr. N. J. Vinicombe, M.H.A., was referee. The Cadet Championship team are as follows:—Goal, M. Farrel; backs, Gus Connors, (Captain) J. F. McEvoy; halves, J. Murphy, J. Lela-hunt, J. L. Connors; forwards, M. Dobbin, (Sub-captain), J. Dwyer, P. T. Murphy, W. Connors and R. Dwyer. J. Penny also played during the season. Following is the complete table of points.

Goals Team F. W. L. D. F. A. Points
Cadets . . . 6 2 1 3 14 4 7
Britons . . . 6 1 3 4 14 9 6
F. Brigade . 6 1 2 3 8 10 5

The Bell Island Football League has challenged for the Inter-town Trophy, and the challenge has been accepted. A picked Island team will therefore be seen at St. George's Field early in September.

ABOUT GIFT SHOPS

Who says the world isn't getting better? I have just revisited one of the Summer resorts of my childhood and in the spot where there once stood a souvenir store is a little shop labelled "Gift Shop."

Don't you call that a step forward? You ask me why I go into your attic if you have one and unearth some of the things that you brought home from the Federal Building or the Grand Central Railway Station painted on them? Do you remember the miniature bean pots and Plymouth Rocks and models of the White House? Do you remember how these things stood around on mantels and wall brackets and parlor tables and were dusted a few thousand times and finally carried off into the attic by a new generation? And then go into the next gift shop and see what you see there.

Things to Use! Some Souvenirs, yes, some of the eternal bric-a-brac, yes, but a great deal more of the immediately useful. The last gift shop I visited had handkerchiefs, silk stockings, dresses, sweaters, blouses, some really practical leather goods, and Summer furs obtained from a local man. It also had some junk to be sure, including a few articles with the name of the place duly painted on them. But the majority of the stuff was something that would be used instead of stood on the mantel to be dusted until another generation swept it into the attic—or, since attics will presumably be almost as scarce as hen's teeth by that time, into the ash can.

One Expects the Tax.

True, the gift shop tax was placed on those articles, but when one buys at a shop that has a short season one reckons on that.

And it is also true that some gift shops perpetrate some extraordinary junk in the name of fancy work. A neighbor told me of a shop where they are selling fly killers embroidered in colored worsteds! Incidentally she commended the idea!

But on the whole, I think that this gift shop granddaughter of the souvenir store is more sensible more sane and more beautiful than its ancestor. Who says the world isn't growing better?

INSOMNIA.

I called on old Doc Graft today and said, "I'm doomed, I think; I spend the long nights in the hay, and cannot sleep a wink. I've tried the many ancient schemes for bringing slumber near, but from the mystic land of dreams I'm barred for good, I fear. I counted forty million sheep last night, but all in vain; I must get next to gentle sleep or I shall go insane. Obeying one cheap doc's harangues, which failed to close my eyes. And so at last I come to you, your help I now implore; they say you've methods strange and new, no docs e'er used before." "I knew you'd come," the Old Doc cried, when weakness made me pause; "I saw you sick, and so I tried, with zeal, to learn the cause. I find your stand off is no good in any part of town; you owe for hay and coal and wood, and for your wife's best gown. In debts you've always been immersed since you were in your teens; you owe the butcher for his worst, the grocer for his beans. It would be vain to feed you pills, they would not set you right; go like a man and pay your bills, and you will sleep at night." This was the robe of Old Doc Graft, too good a rede to waste; and down the elevator shaft he dropped me, in his haste.
