

North Riding Show. The North Riding of Wellington Agricultural Society held their sixth annual exhibition in the village of Arthur, on Wednesday and Thursday, October 1st and 2nd. The weather was good, and there was a large gathering on the ground.

FIRST DAY. The Drill Shed was used for the display of ladies' needlework, grain, roots, &c. In the domestic department there was a good display of fancy needle-work. Some very beautiful quilts were shown, got up in very nice patterns, but the quality of the needlework was not equal to that of the patterns. In fancy needle-work, such as embroidery, crochet, and fancy knitting, the show was very good. In worsted work, plain and raised, there was a fine display. The flower wreaths did not amount to much. There was a fine show of gents' shirts, both machine and hand made. In rag mats there were some very nice patterns and good work. The blankets shown were good, but were the work of only two exhibitors. Stockings and mits were good.

There were 43 entries of different kinds of grain. The samples shown were plump and well colored. We noticed some very fine timothy seed, which for color and quality would not be easily beaten. In flax there were six bags shown, which looked to be of a very good quality. Dairy produce was good. There were 40 entries in butter, some of it elaborately got up—most of the samples tasted nice and sweet. In cheese there were only three entries, two of them home-made; and one of factory, which was considered by the judges not worthy of a prize. Three fine jars of honey were shown, also two samples in the comb. The show of fruit was good, there being quite a number of exhibitors. Apples were of good size and well flavoured; plums were good but few shown; in pears the show was poor; of crab apples a considerable variety was shown. The show of roots was excellent. In potatoes and roots generally, the show was ahead of the Central, held in Guelph, for size. There were 26 entries of potatoes, all fine, and large. The turnips, mangel wurtzel, and carrots were also very large. Onions were very good, especially some very large English potato onions. Squashes, &c., were very good. Cabbage and cauliflowers were fair.

As there were only one set of judges for the grain, roots, &c., they did not get through with their duties on the first day. They appeared to be very particular in thoroughly testing each article. In roots the prize did not go always to the largest; every entry was thoroughly tested with the knife, and those best adapted for feeding, if smaller, were awarded the prize. Where roots had been forced they generally got nothing. The day's proceedings were brought to a close by

THE DINNER given by the society, held at Mr. Wm. Clark's Hotel. The repast was got up in Mr. Clark's best style, the tables being well furnished with produce of barnyard and field, displayed to the best advantage. About fifty gentlemen sat down to dinner. The President, J. Prain, Esq., Reeve, of Minto, occupied the chair; the vice-chair was occupied by the 1st Vice-President, Peter Robb, Esq., of Maryborough. Among those present were D. Sturton, Esq., M.P., N. Highbotham, Esq., M.P., Professor McCandless, of Guelph, J. Robb, Esq., Reeve of Maryborough, Alex. McLaren, Esq., Caledon, —Cross, Esq., —Gordon, Esq., Jas. Moore, Esq., John Anderson, Esq., Registrar, James Paisley, Esq., and several other prominent gentlemen.

SECOND DAY. Weather still fine. There was a large turnout of people. The horses were a splendid show. A great number of entries were made in the class of brood mares and farming horses. There was a good show of cattle generally. The display in thorough-bred was a fair one, but not so good as expected. Grades were well represented, but rather poor in flesh. Thirty pens of very good sheep were shown, also some fine pigs, both large and small breeds.

In implements and vehicles, S. Marshall, Drayton, shows a fine buggy and a long sleigh. Mr. Downing, Elora, shows a nice top buggy. Williams & Cruickshanks, Sturton, show a lumber wagon. Fair & Moore, lumber wagon, sleighs, and harrows. B. Kilgour shows a combined reaper and mower with Johnston self-rake. A. & A. Cochran, combined reaper and mower with Dodge self-rake. J. Chelan, Ferguson, shows a fanning mill. Several others exhibited implements, but we did not learn their names.
