Seay over the week end spending Sunday in joint worship in each respective service, at 3 p.m. in the company of Mr. Seay, visited and worshipped with Rev. James Browning at the 10th Concession Baptist Church, where he took the leading part in the preliminary service. He is completing his vacation as the guest of Mr. Biswell, in Chatham township, thence to Toronto where he will resume his duty in the Imperial Oil Co. Mr. Scott and wife by their Christian ability and fluent and positive speaking have won for themselves many friends.

This city has been favored with its usual large number of visitors among whom were the following: Dr. and Mrs. Bate of Philadelphia, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simpson, who entertained these charming folks in their lovely home. Mr. and Mrs. S. Brooks and party, who motored from Brooklyn, N.Y. and were the guests of Mrs. W. E. Thompson, Montrose Crescent. They left the city for the Thousand Islands overflowing with joy and happiness. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Warren of Chicago, who have been the guests of their niece, Miss Craig; they left town on Monday after a very enjoyable holiday, having been lavishly entertained by Mrs. J. W. Montgomery, Mrs. W. A. Branch, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. Wm. Mucher and many others.

We welcome to our city Dr. and Mrs. McKinney, who intend making Toronto their home. We wish them every success and hope to see more of them.

We have not had an opportunity of worshipping with our good friend and fellow worker, the Rev. Stewart, but we hear excellent reports.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Branch are holidaying in Buffalo.

Mrs. J. L. McGruder returns home this week after a fine visit to Battle Creek and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Montgomery have returned home after a very happy and profitable vacation in the Muskoka district.

The Whistaria Social Club gave their Annual Picnic at Island Park on the 27th. We have attended a few fine affairs, and none of them equals this one. The refreshments and the games were all that the heart could wish for.

The honor of being the first colored church choir to be broadcasted from a Canadian studio has fallen to the choir of the First Baptist Church of this city, of which Rev. A. McEwen Williams is pastor. The choir will give a programme of Negro Folk songs, Southern Melodies, and Classic Anthems, by invitation of CKCL Reliable Batteries Studio in the Prince George Hotel, and will be under the direction of Prof. Robert P. Edwards, assisted by Mrs. Irene Dabney-Lucas, Pianist and Mr. J. Alexander Knight, Organist. The First Baptist quartet, Messrs Mustean, Downes, Edwards and Williams, will be an attractive feature.

The Amherstburg Baptist Association, the oldest Baptist Assn. in the Dominion of Canada, and which has given a start to hundreds of leading Baptist preachers of both races, is in session at the First Baptist Church of this city. As its name signifies this church was founded 100 years ago by a few runaway slaves who were the forerunners of the Baptist denomination in Canada. Rev. H. F. Talbert, of Windsor is the Moderator, and Rev. A. McEwen Williams, formerly of Roger Williams University, of Nashville, Tenn. is the pastor of the First Baptist Church.
