"She shall not have you!" she cried. "I have won you—I have saved you—you are mine! What is Miriam! Can she be to you what I could be?—You shall never have him!" she continued, seeming to address some presence invisible to all eyes but hers. "If I must go, you shall go with me!" She fumbled in her belt, caught the handle of a knife there, and drew it. She lifted it against her heart; but even then there was an uncertainty in her movement as if her mind were divided against itself, or had failed fully to retain the thread of its purpose. But Freeman, who had passed rapidly from one degree of bewilderment to another, was actually relieved to see, at last, something that he could understand. Miriam—for some reason best known to herself-end to the seed of the Grateful parents speak with joy and pleasure regarding the wonderful effects of Paine's Celery Compound when used for the diseases of children. Loving fathers and mothers are terribly distressed when they see their little ones suffer from month to month, and continually getting worse, even while under medical treatment. Experience has amply demonstrated the truth of the assertion, that Paine's Celery Compound, as a medicine, has no equal for all diseases which have their origin in the nervous system.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are specially subject.
