LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Lawn social on St. Andrew's Church grounds to-night.

—The London West Methodist Church strawberry social has been postponed until to-morrow evening.

—Wm. Pugsley, of York street, recently found in this city a mushroom that measured 22 inches around the top, 8 inches across the top and 5 inches around the stem.

—Unless 13-pound bread is stamped by the end of the week it will be liable to seizure. Some of the bakers have not produced their stamps yet from Inspector Bell.

—Detective Fred Templey, of this city, yesterday received from his daughter, a British Columbia tree maple leaves of the ordinary size in that locality. They measure thirteen inches in length and two inches in width.

—There have been small dockets for the Police Court of late. Owing to the absence of the police magistrate at Montreal Mayor Spencer was on the bench again this morning. He let three drunks go with some wholesome advice and warning.

—A number of the members of Thomas Kilwinning and Union Lodges, A. F. M., this city, will visit St. Thomas to-morrow afternoon, when a lodge of instruction will be held by R. W. Bro. Robson, D. G. M. of the London District.

—There was a large attendance at the ice cream social in Queen's Park last night. The drill corps of the juvenile branch of the Court Maple Lodge No. 16, gave two exhibitions of fancy drill.

—The grounds at Port Stanley will doubtless be crowded on Friday. Preparations have been made by Mr. Wm. Fraser to accommodate them all. A string band has been engaged for dancing. Those who wish to enjoy a trip on the lake can do so, and a Milton will make several trips during the day.

—The Forest City Bicycle Club have already sold enough tickets to insure them a good crowd for their cheap excursion to the Court Maple Lodge on Friday evening at 5:15, via C. P. R., and those who wish to secure tickets should hand them in as soon as possible.

—A Golden B. C. dispatch dated June 20 says: Mr. Hammond, of Toronto, and Mr. Reynolds, of London, accompanied by many of our townships, have left for the Vermont district and Vermont Creek claim for the purpose of making a thorough examination of the winter's development work, and to ascertain whether the claim is worth taking up by the syndicate which has a bond on it. It is said the showing is excellent.

—Harry Ball, clerk in Smallman & Ingram's store, was last evening surprised by the other boarders of the Bernard House, Kingston. The train came here on Thursday evening at 5:15, via C. P. R., and those who wish to secure tickets should hand them in as soon as possible.

—At Osgoode Hall, in the case of Smith vs. Beal, judgment on motion by the plaintiff to set aside the judgment of the court in the case of Smith vs. Beal, was granted.

—The plaintiff, declaring him to be entitled to rank as a creditor on the estate of John Smith, of which the defendant Beal is administrator, was successful in his claim.

—On a review of the evidence Galt, C. J., and Rose, J., found in favor of the plaintiff, and a partner or a creditor of the firm. Appeal accordingly allowed with costs.

—The Port Dover Maple Leaf says: "Last Wednesday a very handsome yacht, 28 feet over all, was brought down a wagon from the workshop of Capt. John Shaw, who has had it under construction for some time, and is now ready for use."

—It is needless to say the boat is well and thoroughly constructed if the captain built it, as he would not be paid to build it if it was not a masterpiece.

—The boat has been purchased by Messrs. Smith, wholesale merchants, of London, Ont., and will, we understand, be taken to Port Stanley as soon as finished.

—Mr. J. H. Griffiths, of the Government School of Art, London, has received the following list of names of pupils who had passed at the recent examination in Toronto:

Miss Laura Cooper, freehand and model drawing, shading from flat and model drawing; Ella Portwood, model drawing; Mabel Williams, freehand and model drawing, blackboard drawing; Bert Proctor, freehand and model drawing; Stanley Lyle, freehand; Thomas Johnson, geometry; Lily Dickens, shading from the round; Jack Forbes, shading from the round; Mabel Griffiths, shading from the round; Mabel Kemp, blackboard drawing, outline from the round; shading from the round; Lizzie Gibbons, shading from the round; Chas. Cole, freehand drawing, shading from flat; Smith, freehand; D. Dixon, freehand.

—The Advocacy of Dehorning.

—The London Free Press has the gall to tell its readers that it was the only journal in Western Ontario which at the time that is less than a year ago—advocated the dehorning of cattle. It may be that it does not include this county as being a part of Western Ontario, but if it does, we can tell the rural editor of that publication that there have in this paper advocated the process of dehorning a half dozen years. We got on to the racket through an old friend—a Dr. Wolfe—who owns a large ranch in Kansas and informed us how trivially he does the business with his hundreds of animals. He also told us, and we told the world through these columns—years ago mind you—that once the process is started, and believed in, it is the easiest thing in the world to make a mule of all your calves. You need only cut the skin open where the embryo horn is intended to form and take out the soft movable little lump, and the whole business is done. It is simpler than castration and less trouble. (Barile News)

Several city merchants whose names do not appear in the B. and M. B. coupon books, have since their issue applied to be coupon subscribers, but of course have been refused, and nobody can blame them.

They save a per cent. in cash on their living expenses thereby, and deal only with reputable houses besides. Books and all information in regard to them can be obtained at the office, room 6, Albion Block.

There's Nothing Like Them.

The Toronto Globe, over which correspondence contains the following: "The Young Liberal Ministers, of London, an organization which has attained a Provincial reputation, appeared before a large and delighted audience. This was the second appearance of the Young Liberals in this town, and they more than confirmed the favorable impression made on the first occasion. The performance throughout was bright and attractive. Among the features of the show worthy of special mention were the end men's work, particularly that of Leys and Fred. Saunders; the quartet, Messrs. J. Studley Ashplant, Charles H. Fowling, Thos. Hamilton and J. Leech. The elocution of Messrs. Stevens, Clark and Simpson was of a high order. The dancing of Messrs. Ratnay and Templeton, the fancy drill Hyman Guards, captained by A. Somerville (to whom was presented a bouquet by the Hyman Guards), and the under Capt.
