—The building formerly used as a hotel by Richard Leary and owned by J. Nelles, on the corner of the Gore and Egerton streets, unoccupied, was completely gutted by fire last evening about 10. It is believed incendiarism was the cause. The loss was $300. Mr. Nelles only the day before had about completed the sale of the building to a gentleman who was going to use it for mercantile purposes. The insurance on the building was allowed to run out only a short time ago.

Croft's Double.

A St. Thomas dispatch says: It is now believed that the man occupying the grave in Hamilton intended for Croft is William Stewart. That is the name he gave at the hotel and to Mr. McKellar, the farmer with whom he worked for three days before coming here, and who drove him to the city. He also worked for Mr. Morrison, of Delaware, and about a year ago for Mr. Harkness, of Belmont, and was known to both as William Stewart. He is said to have a sister living in Detroit.

"The Dear Irish Boy."

The theater-goer who went to the Grand last night with the idea that a traditional Irish play was to be put on the boards soon found himself mistaken, as in McCarthy & Reynolds "Dear Irish Boy" there are many surprises and new phases. Mike McClutchey (Reynolds), a repulsive, cunning, murderous scoundrel, does the principal parts magnificently. The drama is full of humor and pathos, dramatic climaxes being worked in profusely. The endless villainy of McClutchey, however, pervades everything until he dies as the result of wounds inflicted by an infuriated mob. As Teddy O'Neil George Timmons did some fair acting and good dancing and singing. Harry English as Con O'Reardon was first-class, while Miss Ollie Evans as Nellie showed herself a clever soubrette. The remainder of the company are above the average. A thoroughly enjoyable performance from start to finish, with plenty of specialties to vary the routine of killing and love-making can be relied on by all the Regular Meeting of the London West Council was held last night at the Temperance Hall, those present being: Reeve Lacey, Deputy Reeve Scarrow, Councilors Duff Brodie and Spence. A communication was read from the Secretary of the School Board, stating that at the last meeting of the Board it was decided to grant the Council the use of the school or Board room upon the previously existing conditions, providing it be not used during school hours for any purpose unless ordered or authorized by the School Board.

THE SUBURB'S SIDEWALKS. They Furnish Subject for Discussion at the Regular Meeting of the London West Council.

Deputy Reeve Scarrow suggested that the matter be referred to No. 1 Committee with power to arrange for the future occupancy of the room, and intimated that the Council did not intend to be kicked out by every whim of the Board. Carried.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid: C. Graham, $745; A. Westman, $285, and R. A. Jones, $694. The accounts of Wm. Hodson, $975, and Mr. Culver, $119, were referred to No. 2 Committee with power. The electric light account, $119, was referred to the Electric Light Committee.

A petition was presented from the wardens of $t. George's Church, asking for a second to the control of the control asking for a second to the control of the control asking for a second to the control of th

Light Committee.

A petition was presented from the wardens of St. George's Church, asking for a tour-foot sidewalk on Queen street, north of the new church, from Wharnchiffe road to William street, and also to have Queen street surveyed in order that the church property could be properly inclosed.

Mr. Kingsmill addressed the Council in support of the petition, stating that it was desirous to have the work finished by Nov. 23, the date set for the opening of the church.

Deputy Reeve Scarrow concurred, and added that in case of an accident the Council of Would be held liable.

Council or Spence contended that Mr. Gurd

cil would be held liable.

Councilor Spence contended that Mr. Gurd or any other man had no right to leave dangerous holes in the sidewalk. Mr. Gurd had been notified to have the same fixed, but he had ignored such notification. It was now the Council's duty to compel him to do so. The speaker moved, seconded by Councilor Duff, that the chairman of No. 2 notify Mr. Gurd to have the sidewalk put in good condition within 24 hours. Carried.

Mr. Gibson Wright complained about the crossing on John street, and suggested that a crossing be made to the postoffice. The sidewalk from John street to Napier street was also in a very bad condition, and in some places was lower than the bottom of the ditch.

Councilor Brodie suggested the lowering of the ditch.

Councilor Duff agreed with Mr. Wright and thought that the holes should be fixed, as at present they had no available funds to build new sidewalks. The matter was referred to No. 2 to report.

Mr. Dennis Collins asked permission to dump two loads of gravel across Blackfriars street to Center street. Granted.

The first meeting of the Court of Revision will be held in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening next, Nov. 11.

The Council adjourned at 9:20.
