Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick head-che, heat-burn, sour stomach, mental deprestion, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything, Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food gelished and satisfied the craying I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling: I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass. N. B. livers His Annual Address, and Inspires His Brethren with Enthusiasm,

Toronto, July 22.—The annual communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario opened here yesterday, several hundred members being present. M. W. Bro. John Ross Robertson, grand master, was in the Grand East, and R. Wor. Bro. the Hon. J. M. Gibson, was D. G. M. Some exciting questions will come before the Grand Lodge, including petitions affecting Kilwinning and Union lodges.

M. W. Bro. Robertson will be re-elected grand master. There will probably be a lively contest for the position of D. D. G. M. for the London district. R. Wor. Bro. Munson is standing for a second term.

The records in the hands of the executive The records in the hands of the executive officers of the craft inform us that the numerical strength of our lodges has increased, that the financial position of Grand Lodge is visibly stronger and that, at the same time, a keener interest has been developed in the cause. This, in a phenomenal manner, has increased the membership and confirms the belief that the steadfast and carriest and every fun predeficial transfer.

manner, has increased the membership and confirms the belief that the steadfast and carnest endeavors of my predecessors have laid the foundation of a work which possesses a moral magnetism to attract all who labor in the cause of fraternal progress, and creates a feeling which compels those who do not gather at our altars, including many who view with hostile mind our rices and ceremonies, to recognize the exceptional position the fraternity occupies as being composed of men who, firm in their belief in and under the guidance of the Deity, are intent upon good, imbued with a desire to foster in every-day life a feeling of kindly charity one for another, and to soften the sad unrest of our common humanity.

The recollection of that pleasant day in Kingston, when at least 1,000 of my brethren stood in the stately hall where the Grand Lodge convened, and with unanimous voice honored me with the privilege of guiding and governing the interests of this fraternity for the Masonic year, was yet fresh in my mind when opportunity called me to England. On the 4th day of September, 1890, at the quarterly communication of the United Grand Lodge of England at London, held in the historic meeting-place of the craft of the motherland, a reception was accorded me as your grand master, which, while memory runs, will never be effaced from mine. MASONIC CRAND LODGE.

Grand Master John Ross Robertson De

THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS was interesting and comprehensive. The following are its more salient points:

Brethren of Grand Lodge,—The pleasure of meeting my brethren of Grand Lodge as they assemble in this their 36th annual communication is enhanced by a knowledge that the calendar of the craft year is marked by evidences of advancement and material progress.

a self to me that Grand Lodge should so arrange that his entire time should be delivoted to the work, and that the services of a stenographer should be paid either out of the amount allotted for the office or that an increase should be provided to meet the expense. In these modern days, with the mass of correspondence connected with an office of this character, such an aid is indispensable. The experience of the past year convinced me that, with the clerical aid suggested, a large portion of my correspondence could have been transbmitted through the grand secretary's office. Another large expense is incurred in connection with the Board of General Purposes.—in 26 years no less a sum than $17,721 28. We all recognize the work of the board, and as a directing body in the transactions of the Grand Lodge its services are invaluable. It is composed on an average of 50 weeks.

invaluable. It is composed on an average of 50 members, all of whom are presumed to share in its deliberations and assist in the discharge of its work, and yet we know that the actual business of the board is practically accomplished by less than a dezen mathers. practically accomplished by less than a dozen members.

While I quite recognize and appreciate the zeal, ability and worth of these officers, I fail to see the reason why the framers of our constitution should have considered that they were entitled to a seat upon the board, as they are in my opinion only the deputies of the grand master in their respective districts. If this reduction were made and payment granted the members of the board for only the two days preceding the meeting of the Grand Lodge, a material reduction would be made in our expenditure.

foreign jurisdictions, and during the past year the vacancies for this jurisdiction near those of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire, Michigan, New York, Mississippi and Cuba, and the vacancies for the Grand Lodges of Victoria and Cuba, near this jurisdiction, have been filled. I am glad also to state that we have exchanged representatives with the Grand Orients of Italy and the Netherlands. I fraternally ask your confirmation of these appointments.

The incoming year brings with it the centennial of the craft in this jurisdiction. One hundred years ago the first Provincial Grand Lodge of Upper Canada opened in Niagara, One., and at the same time the pioneer craft lodge of this city, the Rawden, or the Lodge between the Lakes, No. 498, E. R., was at work within sight of this Grand East. I purpose at this meeting application of the committee ordered by the Grand Lodge in 1889 to consider how this important event may be celebrated in a fitting manner.

A pleasing feature of the grand master's address was his trenchent criticism of the expenditure of Grand Lodge. He said: After surveying the tables presented, I am forced to the conclusion that it costs Grand Lodge more than it should to handle its business. We receive about $19,500 per annum, and by a careful revision of the yearly expenditure, making allowance for a due return of money expended for printing certificates and other items, you will find we pay over 30 per cent. for transacting this business, an amount that might be considerably curtailed, and that without the sightest injustice to any department of the work.

The expense of the grand secretary's office for the past 26 years amounts to $70,-867 38. While my relations official and personal with that officer have been of the happiest character, a conviction presents itself to me that Grand Lodge should so arrange that his entire time should be devoted to the work, and that the services of a stenographer should be paid either out of the amount allotted for the office or that an order the manual proposation.
