Discourse in London.

London, Jan. 18.—The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage's Sunday Discourse in London.

London, Jan. 18.—The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D.D., of Brooklyn, preached in this city to-day, taking for his text Acts xvi., 31: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." He said:

Jails are dark, dull, damp, loathsome places even now; but they were worse in the apostolic times. I imagine, to-day, we are standing in the Phillippian dungeon. Do you not hear the groan of those incarcerated ones who for ten years have not seen the sunlight, and the deep sigh of women who remember their fathers house, and mourn over their wasted estates? Listen again. It is the cough of a consumptive, or the struggled one in an inflamare of a great horror. You listen again, and hear a great horror.

CONFIDENCE.

"Oh," says some one in a light him as fairly. "Oh," says some one in a light way, "I believe that the died on the cross." Do you believe it with your head or your heart? I will illustrate the difference. You are in your own house. In the morning you open a newspaper, and you read how Capt. Braveheart, on the sea, risked his life for the salvation of his passengers. You say: "What a grand fellow he well of the come." His family deserves very well of the come. His family deserves very and sit down at the work of the salvation of his passengers. You are on the sea, and it is night, and you are asleep, and are awakened by the shriek of "Fire!" You rush out on the deck. You hear, amid the wringing of the hands and the fainting, the cries: "No hope! we are lost!" The sail put out its wings of fire, the ropes make a burning ladder in the night heavens, the spirit of wreck hisses in the waves, and on the hurricane deck shakes out its banner of smoke and darkness. "Down with the life boats!" cries the captain. "Down with the life heaven, the spirit of wreck hisses in the waves, and on the hurricane deck shakes out its banner of smoke and darkness." Down with the life heaven, the spirit of wreck hisses in the waves, and on the hurricane deck shakes out its banner of smoke and darkness. Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretion, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it fonly taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, Allen's Lung Balsam is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced Cough Curg.

If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.
