THE END OF THE DROUGHT.

Last night we marked the twinkling stars. This morn no dew revived the grass. And off across the parching fields We see the dusty eddies pass.

The eager hawk forgets to swing And scream across the burning air, And from the oak's slow-dying crest Sends forth a strange and plaintive cry.

The geese on unaccustomed wings Flap wildly in ungainly flight. The peacock's fierce, defiant scream Smites the air with wild delight.

The crows are barking in the woods. The maple leaves their silver show. The cattle snuff the coming storm. Then toss their heads and softly low.

And now along the hazy west The swiftly building clouds appear: High over head the winds are loud. The thunder rolls and grumbles near.

The householders trim the leaky eaves. The farmer frets of lodging grain; Till all the world, rejoicing, drinks The long-denied, long-prayed-for rain.

—Ald. J. W. Jones, London, is a delegate at the great Scottish Clans gathering in New York.

—Joseph T. Marks and Hugh A. McLean are representing London at the Trades and Labor Congress in Ottawa.

—The steamer Acadia has landed a large quantity of freight, principally sugar, at Port Stanley for London merchants.

—The Palace Dancing Academy is open evenings this week from 8 to 9 o'clock, for the instruction of pupils for the beginners' class, which commences next week.

—To prevent any shortage this dangerous dry spell the G. T. R., at the water commissioners' request, will pump its supply from the south branch of the river.

—A local young lady cyclist in bloomers appeared on the streets yesterday and attracted a great deal of attention. Perhaps she was breaking the ice for others to follow.

—The last great picnic at Port Stanley this season will be that under the auspices of the London and St. Thomas Club, which will be held on Tuesday. The steamer Lakeside has been chartered.

—Merchant to small boy—Well, sonny, what do you want? Small boy—Nothing, sir. Merchant—Well, you will get it at the shop next door. It's the only thing they advertise.

—Mrs. W. H. Atkinson, of London, is in attendance on her sister, Mrs. D. C. Parker, injured by falling on the sidewalk in front of Duncombe's opera house Saturday night. (St. Thomas Journal.)

—The fence on the L. and P. S. R. in the vicinity of Glanworth caught fire. It is thought, from a spark from a passing engine Saturday. It quickly spread to an adjoining bush, which is reported to be burning brightly.

—A Toronto dispatch says: "Hon. J. J. Rogerson, at one time registrar-general for Newfoundland, passed through the city today (Tuesday) en route for London, Ont., to attend the General Anti-Slavery Conference opening there Thursday."

—The barn and outbuildings of John Hamilton, 4th concession, Biddulph, were totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock. Supposed cause of fire, incendiarism. All his season's crop and a number of implements were destroyed.

—Capt. Arthur Magee, of London, was present at the G. T. R. rink last night and drilled the Liberal Fleet. It is the intention to hold a promenade concert and exhibition drill shortly in the drill shed, when the London Liberal Fleet will come over and assist. (St. Thomas Journal.)

—Mr. McMurray, traveler for Messrs. Sonnens & Ewell, of this city, says that near London on the G. T. R. he lately saw women with their bathing water that leaked from the water tank while a locomotive boiler was being filled. The drought is something terrible in the west. (Hamilton Times. That's what.)

—Next Friday Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown," with the original New York cast, including Mr. Harry Conner, comes to the Grand, and will be produced in a sumptuous manner. Every particle of scenery and furniture used in the piece is from Hoyt's Madison Square Theater, New York, where the popular skit had a run of 700 nights. Seats now on sale.

—"A Cracker Jack" is a southwestern expression, and means "unusually good," or "exceedingly clever." It is said to fit the play of that name to a nicety, which will be seen at the Grand Saturday evening.

—Miss Carrie Esler, who created a furore at Mattie Meggs last season, is "A Cracker Jack," and is still playing the part, while Frank V. Gillespie, the original and ex-cruciating "coon," continues to disport himself as Pete the Possum.

—Mr. B. S. Murray, of South London, sustained some severe bruises and an ugly laceration in his knee and ankle, as a result of being thrown out of a vehicle at York street bridge, as already narrated, but his many friends will be glad to know his injuries were no worse. Mr. Murray was accompanied at the time by Mr. W. M. Smith, of the National Express Co., Detroit, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Murray. Mr. and Mrs. Smith caught their train all right, and say that their good opinion of the Forest City is in no way changed regardless of the fact that their last experience of it was a little unfortunate.

—Fishermen Hurt.

—Messrs. T. G. Davey, of the G. T. R., John P. Evans, hotelkeeper, and R. C. Macle, of this city, spent Labor Day fishing at Union. On driving home in the evening a wheel came off the vehicle on St. George street, St. Thomas, and the trio were thrown out. Mr. Macle fared the worst, receiving a bruise under the right eye, caused by Mr. Evans falling upon him. Davey and Evans were badly shaken up. The party reached the city about 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

—Died in Caradoc.

It is a sad duty to announce the death of Mrs. Thomas Collins, Caradoc, which took place on the 29th ult. The deceased was in the 45th year of her age, and has been a patient sufferer for the past four years. On the following Tuesday a long procession followed the remains from the family residence, Muncey road, to the Roman Catholic Cemetery at Mount Brydges.

Repetition of Job's Great Affliction.

Mr. George Henry Drew, of this city, has been in very poor health for some time. His system was completely run down, and his blood so impoverished that "boils" came out all over his body. In short, it seemed but a repetition of Job's great affliction, for no sooner did they disappear in one part of the body than they returned elsewhere with more severity, and this condition of affairs seemed to increase, although Mr. Drew had tried no end of cures. On the 5th day of August he got one bottle of the Royal Crown Remedy and a box of Royal Crown Pills at Barkwell's drug store, of which he has taken half, and last evening he called at the above store to return thanks, and in the presence of eight witnesses stated that it did him more than $1,000 worth of good, as he had not felt as well for years, and the benefit derived from it could not be overrated, and it ought to be made known to other sufferers. It establishes throughout the entire system functional harmony, and supplies the blood vessels with a pure and healthy current of new life. The skin, after a few days' use of the Crown Remedy, becomes clear and beautiful—pimples, blotches, black spots and skin eruptions are removed, sores and ulcers soon cured. Persons suffering from Scrofula, Eruptive Diseases, the Eyes, Mouth, Ears, Legs, Throat and Glands, that have accumulated and spread, either from uncurable diseases or mercury, or from the use of corrosive sublimate, may rely on a cure if the Royal Crown Remedy is continued a sufficient time to make its impression on the system.

where they were interred in their last resting place. The deceased leaves a loving husband and five sons to mourn her loss. To Mr. Collins and sons is extended the sincerest sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

A New Weed.

A. S. Williams, con. 9, Dover, Kent county, claims to have discovered a new weed. It grows, he says, from three to six feet tall, has a very large stalk and is fairly loaded with little brown seeds, each of which is attached to a "blow" a little smaller than that on the Canadian thistle. The stalk and leaves are full of milky juice, but cattle will not touch it, while they eagerly devour the ordinary milkweed. Mr. Williams says that one corner of a field of wheat on his place was so completely covered that he could not use the binder at all, as it broke the knife all to pieces. He has been around the country considerable and has discovered a lot of the weed in Dover, Chatham township, Raleigh and Tilbury East. The Ontario Agricultural College authorities have been asked to examine and report on the weed.

Farewell Gathering.

St. Andrew's Church lecture room presented an animated appearance last night, the occasion being a farewell social in honor of the young minister (Mr. W. Patterson) who has so ably assisted the pastor during the past four months, and who is now taking his departure to resume his studies.

Rev. Mr. Murray, who was the chairman, referred to his assistant as a most capable and able young man, who no doubt would fill a high position in the church and accomplish much good in his chosen profession. Mr. Patterson was greatly affected in his leave-taking, and spoke of the many kindnesses shown him by the pastor and congregation. He felt he had been benefited by his short stay amongst them, and hoped he had been made use of by the Master in advancing his kingdom. During the evening refreshments were served. A short musical programme was given as follows: Song, "The Watchers," Mr. Moffat; song, "Don't Cry, Little Girl," Miss Gilmore; reading, "Two Courtships," Miss Goss; song, "Gates of the West," Miss Carson; "The Song that Reached My Heart," Mrs. Ellis; song, "Answered," Mr. Moffat.

The Last of the Season.

The closing band concert of the season will be given in Victoria Park on Thursday, the 6th inst., on which occasion the citizens' committee which had charge of the concert of some weeks ago, will make a second effort to clear off the debt due for music furnished the band for summer concerts since 1889, by accepting voluntary contributions at the gates. The offering at the concert of Aug. 24 was a generous one, and the committee is deeply grateful for it, but a considerable amount is still due, and it is desired to close the season with the entire indebtedness cleared. To this end a programme of rare merit has been prepared and it is hoped that a large and generous crowd will be present to enjoy it. The following is the programme:

March—Sunlight. Krull.

Gavotte—Imperial. Le Theatre.

Coronet solo—Polka—The Bugle Call, (by special request) Mr. Liberatori.

Mr. Moore.

Waltz—The Aberdeen (by request), F. J. Moore.

Song—Selection. Mr. Moore.

Selection—Lucresia (Borgia) (by request) Mr. Moore.

Valze—Selection (by request), Donizetti.

Selection—The Bohemian Girl, (by request) Mr. Moore.

Nyctophone Solo—The Blue Bird, McKenna.

Western Ontario Peaches Ahead.

The peach trade of Western Ontario has taken a big jump this summer and left the Niagara district away behind, so far as the market of this district is concerned. An average shipment of 2,000 baskets, or two cars, arrives every morning in London from Leamington, Ruthven, Harrow, Kingsville, and the fruit growing places of Kent and Essex. Much of it stays here, but the remainder is sent to contiguous points, London being the distributing center for the surrounding locality. The consignments are in charge of the Canadian Express Company and are shipped via the L. E. and D. R. R. to Walkerville, where the cars are transferred to the G. T. R. for London. In past years the local market was supplied from the Niagara district, and this is the first season in which the western peninsula peach growers have secured the ascendancy. The credit of this is greatly due to the excellent carrying facilities afforded by the Canadian Express Company, whose officials have done their utmost to foster the trade by placing growers in immediate touch with consumers. The success of the enterprise augurs well for the western peach business in the future.
