Talk. London, Jan. 3.—The Imperial Federa-tion League Journal, the official organ of the league, stronly urges the folly of the the league, strong large and the paper preferential tariff movement. The paper states that all concerned will get on much faster with practical federation if this preferential trade talk ceases, as it tends to dissension and hinders the real progress of the movement.

Fierce Fighting in Egypt.

CAIRO, Jan 3.—The body of dervishes which recently attacked Gemai near Wady-Halfa was overtaken near Ambigot yester-day by a detachment of Egyptian cavalry and a fierce battle ensued. The dervishes, who greatly outnumbered the Egyptians, made several furious onslaughts on the made several furious onslaughts on the Government troops, but were finally repulsed with heavy loss. Many dervishes were slain. Capt. Pyne, of the British staff, and 45 Egyptians, including an officer, were killed, and many others were wounded. A detachment of Egyptian cavalry, with British officers, has arrived at Ambigot since the battle took place, and further reinforcements have been despatched to the scene of the conflict. Hitch in the Crofter Emigration Scheme.

LONDON, Jan. 3 .- The outgoing of Lord Salisbury's administration and the incoming of that of Mr. Gladstone has quite up set the policy and the plans in the matter of State-aided emigration. The Secretary of State-aided emigration. The Secretary for Scotland has intimated that there will e no further Crofter emigration to the rthwest under control of the State. The British Columbia Crofter scheme is affected by this declaration, and as a consequence the Crofter Company, which proposed to establish a Crofter colony and provide the members with means for making a living, which would be to the mutual advantage of both the company and its settlers, is still unformed, and the company has been compelled to obtain an extension of time of one year for its formation.

The men listened attentively throughout the service, and, as they were forming in line outside the cathedral afterwards, cheered for the canon repeatedly. The procession moved from the cathedral to Camberwell, singing "The Marseillaise" and "The Starving Poor of England."

The Canal Scandal. Paris, Jan. 3 .- The examination Charles De Lesseps, Marius Fontaines Sans-Leroy and Felix Cottu, who are Sans-Leroy and Felix Cottu, who are charged with being implicated in the Panama Canal corruption, was finished on Saturday. The case of the deputies charged with having received money from the Panama Canal Company was opened by Magistrate Franqueville yesterday. The accused are: Jules Roche, ex-Minister of Commerce; Maurice Rouvier, ex-Minister of Finance; Emmanuel Arene, member from Corsica; Baron Jean de Soubeyran, member from Vienne; M. Antoine Prouxt, member from Duex, Sevres; and Joseph Dugue de la Fauconnerie, member from Orne. There is reason to believe that no more deputies are implicated in the Panama Canal scandals, and have prevailed throughout Austria and Hungary all day. Scores of villages have Hungary all day. Scores of viringes have been completely isolated. At Trieste all traffic has been stopped by the drifts. In this city the snow is piled ten or twelve feet high between the roads and sidewalks. A milk and butter famine has resulted. Frozen to Death.

The Gallia-Umbria Incident.

LONDON LAB 3. The Canada Canada Hong Merritton, Jan 13.—Yes

London, Jan. 3. - The Cunard Company ave issued an efficial statement of the freight sli Gallia-Umbria incident. In this statement ab apt. Ferguson, of the Gallia, says that when his steamer approached the Umbrishe saw a steamer lying in proximity to her blowing off steam. The Umbris was lying like a duck in the water and formed a perfect picture of security, while the Gallia was rolling heavily. On reading the signal "Shaft broken," Capt. Ferguson consulted with his chief engineer. The latter officer was satisfied with the next signal, "Ready to proceed to-morrow," that the Umbris was in no danger whatever, and that there were some weeks' more provisions aboard for all the passengers and crew. Capt. Ferguson, the report continues, had to consider his own position, with the prospect of easterly weather leaving him an insufficient margin in his coal supply. Should he, its aske, have expended a considerable portion of his tuel in standing by the Umbria for one and en his steamer approached the standing by the Umbria for one and essibly two days?

His second message was to the Roman Catholics. They were high-minded, chival-rous and sympathetic. "Nevertheless, I Catholics. They were high-minded, chival-rous and sympathetic. "Nevertheless, I hod," he said, "that Protestantism and Popery are never faithful to themselves except when they are fighting each other to the death."

The third message was to members of Parliament, and the fourth to directors in public companies. Dr. Pareer scathingly denounced the despoliation of the small investor as carried on by the building societies which failed in 1892. After alluding to the rascality of conspicuous men connected with these societies he said: "To the corporation regne I say: 'You should be hanged with the rope and buried in the field of Judas Iscariot."

After reciting briefly the story of the Liberator Building Society and its wreek, be stepped forward and shouted: "The

MR. CARLING'S BARLEY FIZZLE.
[Ottawa Free Press.]
The Globe's commissioners have been making inqu'ry in the counties of North-umberland and Durhsm as to the results of Mr. Carling's two-rowed barley policy. The farmers find that by following the advice of the Federal Government and its touters, and cultivating two-rowed barley for the British market, they have been more cruelly victimized than ever been more cruelly victimized than ever they were by seed grain or hay tork agents. says: The settlement of the Oregon contest makes it possible to give an accurate table of the vote for President as it should be cast by the Electoral College, and which will show: Cleveland's majority, 108.

The Snell Murcer.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 4.—Detective John A. Dier when shown the Spokane dispatch saying that Tascott, the suspected murderer of Snell, was in Alaska, said he knew it. He added that Tascott was not the murderer, but that the deed was committed by a wealthy man now living in this city who had a business quarrel with Snell on the evening of the murder, and subsequently went to Snell's home with Tascott and two others and accomplished the crime. better market in Britain, where 80 cents a bushel would be an ordinary price. To-day two-rowed barley is quoted at 25 cents a bushel, and is not wanted at that price
