WEATHER BULLETIN

London, Jan. 2.-8 a.m. TEMPERATURE. STATIONS-Parry Sound 241/2 Pather Point... FORECASTS. Today—Strong winds and gales; south-westerly to northwesterly; light falls of sleet or snow at most places, turning considerably colder again tonight. Friday—Fair and quite cold.

WEATHER NOTES. WEATHER NOTES.

A period of unseasonably rapid weather changes prevails. An important disturbance, now situated over Lake Superior, is traveling rapidly towards the Atlantic, followed by another cold wave. The weather will turn gradually colder again tonight in the Lake Region, and tomorrow in Ottawa and St. Lawrence Valleys.

DE VOE'S GUESSES.

De Voe, the alleged weather prophet, says the year 1902 is likely to witness about the average number of storms in this country. There will probably be more thunderstorms than usual, and some of them will be severe, but tornadoes and cyclones will not be more frequent than usual. There will be lack of rain in some of the Eastern and Western States, but the middle and southern sections are not likely to suffer much. The conditions to be expected in the month of January are as follows: 1 to 3, snow or rain; 4 to 7, pleasant but cold; 8 to 10, storm world. formed in Texas will move northward, ausing heavy snowfall over the Western and northern States; 11 to 13, rain followed by cold wave; 14 and pleasant; 16 to 19, storm forming in Mississippi will pass over Ohio Valley, causing great rain and snow and flood dangers; 20 and 21, milder; 22 to 26, blustery, followed by a storm which will sweep the country and cause floods in the gulf states; 27 and 28, fair and cold; 29 to 31, warm.

Mayor Rumball, the Free Press POLICE COURT. and the Hospital.

The Free Press intimated the other day that the contest would be short and clean, and that there would be "no knifing." Having made this announcement it forthwith proceeds to fill its boots with razors, and in this morning's issue, in the most shameless manner, slashes away at Mayor Rum-

Mr. Waterman, who is absent on a trip to Buffalo, so far as we know, has not signified his intention to enter into a contest for the position of Hospital Trustee, but he may be a candidate: and because Mayor Rumball is a candidate, the Free Press, although announcing its intention to act fairly, returns to its wallowing in the mire. Of Mayor Rumball, it says, "He never attended a meeting that he did not oppose everything that was brought up to improve the hospital comfort." The Free Press has penned some "rousing thuds." but this is entitled to a front place. It then proceeds to discuss the procuring of two electric fans for one of the long wards. These were ordered by Mr. Beck and paid for, onehalf by Mr. Beck and one-half by Mr. McCormick. When this was brought up at the board, the Free Press tells us. Mayor Rumball "flew into a rage, and protested against any money being spent for such an object."

"All right, then," said Mr. Beck, according to the Free Press, "I won't press the board to pay for this if it doesn't want to; I'll pay it myself." Generous Mr. Beck! Stingy Mayor Rumball! Have the electors not become surfeited with the Free Press flaunting the swelled purse of Mr. Beck in their faces? The Free Press adds: "This is a true story, and is useful as illustrating the differences in men." There is quite a difference between Mr. Beck and Mayor Rumball. The statement that Mayor Rumball flew into a rage is utterly false; that he declined to allow the fans to be paid for by the Trust is equally false. The whole story is slimy slander. But the Free Press number of the parents and friends of cannot get the people to believe that the Mayor, who has shown himself on all occasions to be a "man every inch." is narrow-minded, and that Mr. Beck is generous. Who was the manly generous man in his treatment of Mr. Thomas? Who was the manly generous man towards the Western Fair Board, including Mr. Waterman? The Free Press may shout itself hoarse and lihel Mayor Rumball till it falls back exhausted; the answer to it lies in the fact that Mayor Rumball has a record, and of that record the electors are as proud as he himself has reason to be. Don't flaunt that swelled purse of Mr. Beck's so incessantly. Pleasant Reunion at Government House, Toronto-Hon. George W. Ross Assisted His Former Leader.

Toronto, Jan. 2.-The admiration of citizens of all classes, irrespective of politics, for Sir Oliver Mowat, was evinced in a remarkable manner by the New Year's Day reception at Government House. From 4:30 p.m. to 6 o'clock a steady stream of callers passed before the aged lieutenant-governor, and with genuine warm-heartedness wished him the compliments of the season.

In the reception of his numerous callers he was assisted by Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Miss Mowat, Miss Marjorie Mowat, Mrs. Fred Mowat, Miss Casey, Commander Law and Capt, Strauben-Despite his weight of years, Oliver was in excellent health and spirits, and exchanged with those personally acquainted with him brief reminiscences of past meetings in the political arena or at social gatherings, while for those who met him for the first time he had, as always, a bright and appropriate greeting. The presence of Hon. Mr. Ross naturally recalled to many minds the days when as a lieutenant in the government ranks he ably supported the then premier, now Sir Oliver Mowat.

The premier was also in good health, and thoroughly enjoyed the proceed-ings. The callers were welcomed in the reception room, and afterwards passed to the ball room, where refreshments were served. As usual the decorations were tasteful and seasonable.

THE BIG CONDUCTOR THREW THEM OFF.

Conductor Wins.

It was proved last night to the evident satisfaction of two Wolseley Barracks soldiers that Conductor John J. Macdonald, of 592 Dufferin avenue, is a "scrapper" of high standing, and a man not to be trifled with.

Macdonald is a sturdy six-footer and has shown his ability in pugilistic affairs on more than one occasion. It was he who at Pottersburg made several rowdies regret that they had taken steps against him, and last night, when at the Clock Corner, three husky regulars from the barracks boarded the car, his reputation as a "slugger" was in no way marred. Two of the soldiers had apparently been celebrating, and straightaway proceeded to make themselves a general nuisance. They went to the front seat, and one of them fell through the large window. When Macdonald asked for their fare they refused it, one of them at the same time making a pass at Macdonald, who then proceeded to put them off the car. To accomplish this was no light task, and during the scuffle five large lights of glass were broken and much good blood spilt. One of the men drove his fist through a window in his effort to strike the conductor, and as a result is now in the hospital at the barracks. From the corner of Richmond and Oxford, where they were thrown off, to the switch on Oxford street, the soldiers followed the car, carrying sticks and vowing a vengeance swift and strong.

CONSTIPATION

Causes Headache, Piles, Abdominal Pains, and, in Severe Cases, Insanity and Apoplexy.

It is a common mistake to conclude dangerous that constipation is no a dangerous condition. Although at first it is only accompanied by slight inconvenience and pain, yet if not corrected it inevitably will lead to very dire results Great care should be exercised in selecting a remedy for constipation, because if a violent pugative is employed it is sure to set up pain, irritation and congestion, and result finally in

The experience of those who have tested all the cures of constipation, seems to prove that Ferrozone is the most agreeable and satisfactory treatment, for it makes the bowels so well ordered that natural and unassisted action is permanently established. Nothing, can equal the immediate sense of comfort it produces, and pains in he head and in the stomach and in the intestines disappear almost at once. Ferrozone is very mild and certain in action, and it never causes inconvenience or distress. Ferrozone can be taken daily, as long as required, and in no way interferes with business or pleasure, and nothing may be feared from its use, however prolonged it may

For constipation, piles and sick headache Ferrozone stands unequaled-for quickness of relief and permanency of cure. It is used in the practice of local physicians and highly recommended at W. T. Strong & Co.'s drug store, where it is supplied at 50 cents a box, containing 63 chocolate-coated tablets, sufficient for three weeks' use.
