Comes Slowly. It rarely comes without warning. You may perhaps notice that a number of loose hairs catch in your brush; there may be a dozen of them. That number seems trifling as compared with the multitude that covers your head. But suppose you lose a dozen hairs a couple of times a day, day after day, week in and week out, a few months will bring about a marked change. If you are losing any hair at all, or your scalp is covered with dandruff, use Oriental Rum and Quinine Hair Tonic at once. It will stop hair from falling, make it soft and glossy, and remove the itching, troublesome dandruff. 50c a bottle. CAIRNCROSS & LAWRENCE, Chemists and Druggists.

Funerals of the Late Dr. Bucke and Postmaster Browne.

Former Took Place to Woodland and the Latter to Mount Pleasant

Cemetery.

London has seldom been called upon to witness so sadly impressive an event as that which took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the funerals of Dr. Bucke, late superintendent of the London Asylum, and Thos. A. Browne, late postmaster, took place, the former to Woodland Cemetery and the latter to Mount Pleasant. At almost the same moment, all that is mortal of two really good citizens-whose deaths, by a strange coincidence, were so similar in their suddenness, and whose lives were so similar in their rare nobilitywas placed in the tomb. The funeral services in both instances were simple, but this very simplicity added to the profound impressiveness of them. The funeral of the late Dr. Bucke took place from his late home at the Asylum grounds to Woodland Cemetery at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Bishop Baldwin, Rev. C.

They were of a simple nature. Only the family and near friends were in attendance. His three sons-W. A. Bucke, Toronto, Dr. E. P. Bucke, and R. W. Bucke, of this city; two brothers—P. E. Bucke and J. P. Bucke, K. C., of Sarnia, and

C. Owen, rector of the Cronyn Memorial Church, and Rev. W. J. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church

Mr. Harry Pope, of this city, acted as pall-bearers. The remains of the late Thomas A. Browne were interred at Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The funeral was of a private nature, only intimate friends being present. Rev. George G. Bishop conducted the service. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John B. Scandrett, Joseph W. Scandrett, Thomas Scandrett, Fred R. Scandrett, Fred Browne, brother of the late postmas-

London Asylum.

[Toronto Globe.] Dr. T. A. McCollum, of Dunnville, has been appointed superintendent of the London Asylum, in succession to the late Dr. R. M. Bucke, at a salary of $2,000 and residence. Dr. McCollum is a very well-known practitioner in the Niagara Peninsula, where he has practiced his profession for the past quarter of a century. He came originally from Stouffville, York county, where his aged father still resides. Dr. McCollum is a many-sided man, but is said to rank as the best surgeon in the peninsula. He has never ceased to be a student, and is especially interested in botany and natural history. He is a recognized authority on fish and game, and has been chairman of the provincial commission since its establishment. He was at one time an unsuccessful candidate for the House of Commons. Dr. McCollum has two sons, who have already won distinction in the medical profession. It is confidently expected from his past record that his career at London will be distinctly successful. The transport McClellan, which sails for Manila today (Saturday) will carry
