

FOG AND STORM BALK MAURETANIA

World's Biggest Liner Arrives
at New York on Maiden Trip.

New York, Nov. 22.—Poking her nose through a dense fog, which hid even her mast tops from the sight of those on deck, the biggest and most luxurious ship ever launched safely finished her maiden voyage today, when at 11:03 o'clock this morning the Cunard liner turbine steamship Mauretania, anchored off the Sandy Hook lightship, five days five hours and ten minutes from Queenstown, bearing $12,500,000 in gold for the west. She struggled against tempestuous weather to beat the world's trans-Atlantic record of four days, 15 hours and 40 minutes, held by her sister ship, the Lusitania.

Head winds and heavy cross seas baffled her, but she won the right to one blue ribbon. On Thursday, Nov. 21, Captain Pritchard drove the huge ship 624 knots, 671 miles, which is six knots better than the best day's run of the Lusitania, and leads all marine records.

Though the new liner demonstrated a capacity for greater speed by day under favorable conditions than the Lusitania has thus far proved herself capable of an uncommonly stormy passage and fog off this coast combined to make her time 10 hours and 30 minutes more than that established by her sister ship. But Captain Pritchard believes that with fair weather he can beat the Lusitania from coast to coast.

The Mauretania is 792 feet in length over all, two feet longer than the Lusitania; has a beam of 88 feet, a depth of hold of 80 feet; is 155 feet high from keel to funnel tops and 216 feet from keel to masthead; draws 37 feet and 6 inches of water (mean estimate); has a tonnage displacement of 45,000, an indicated horsepower of 70,000; was launched on the Tyne (England) Sept. 20, 1906; carries a crew of 800 odd officers and men; has accommodations for 550 passengers in the first-class cabins, 500 in the second class, and 1,300 in steerage, and cost approximately $7,500,000.

The $12,500,000 in gold brought by the Mauretania is said to be the largest consignment of specie ever carried by a ship.

The passengers included Prince Andre Poniatowski, Princess De Polk, Sir Clifton and Lady Robinson, Professor Berlioz, Anthony J. Drexl, S. S. McClure, Denis O'Sullivan, Hon. J. J. Ashley, W. H. Bartlett, Hassan Ben Ali, Gilbert Campbell and Clarence Phelps Dodge.

FINE FIND OF IRON ORE

A Magnificent Deposit Located Close to Bathurst, New Brunswick.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 22.—Particular attention has of late been turned to New Brunswick minerals, through rights which have been secured by the Drummond Mines, Limited, of Montreal, a corporation whose operations have, up to the present time, been confined wholly to Cobalt.

Negotiations have just been completed in Montreal, and T. M. Burns, M. P. P., acting for the owners of the property, is very enthusiastic over its possibilities. The mining claims are in Gloucester County, and recent tests have shown a depth of 324 feet of solid iron ore, close to the surface. This property is located on the Nepisiquit River, eleven miles from Bathurst, on the north shore. In order to develop the property, it will be necessary to build a branch line to Bathurst.

The leases cover a territory of 25 square miles.

BIG FISH SEIZURES

Dominion Government Officials Make Haul Up the Soo Way.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 22.—The most important seizures of fishing boats, net and fish effected by the Dominion Government officials in years have been made in the neighborhood of Killarney by Capt. A. C. Duncan, Dominion Inspector of fisheries. It is expected that wholesale prosecutions will be instituted by the Government. Many thousands of dollars are involved in the seizures.

One of the tugs, belonging to Purvis Bros., was seized, as well as a large number of pound nets and two gasoline launches, belonging to Gauthier, of French River.

The fish were all confiscated by the officers, and the boats which were seized were liberated after the officers had obtained a receipt from the owners for them, which practically means that they are still in the hands of the Government.

WILLIE LOCKED GIRLS IN VAULT

A Sextette of Beautiful Chicago
Stenographers Have Thrilling Experience.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—Six young women stenographers, employed by the American Steel and Wire Company, had a terrifying experience today, as the result of a prank played on them by an office boy.

There are 30 young women employed in the order department, transcribing invoices on the typewriter. During the noon hour they organize choruses and play parlor games until the return of their superior. Yesterday six of the young women received a variation of the programme, and adjourned to a cavernous vault to sing. They left the door partly closed.

Just when the chorus was rolling forth in reverberating volume, little Willie Osterfelt, the office boy, slipped up to the vault, banged the door shut and gave the combination knob a whirl.

The song of the imprisoned sextet died away in a shriek, while six pairs of feminine hands beat on the iron door. The other young women stenographers sprang to the rescue, and Willie hastily decamped.

The vault was airtight and none of the girls knew the combination—in fact, it was known only to A. P. Pratt, head of the filling department, and he was at lunch. One cool-headed young woman, however, found the janitor, and rushed him to the spot with pickaxe and crowbar.

A hole was soon made in the vault wall, through which the prisoners received air. They were nearly suffocated. Pratt returned later and released the six girls. One was suffering from a nervous shock as a result of the experience, and was sent home in a carriage.

INSANITY DEFENSE IN BRADLEY TRIAL

Washington, Nov. 22.—The criminal court, in which Mrs. Annie M. Bradley is being tried on the charge of murdering ex-United States Senator Brown, of Utah, will hold no session tomorrow, and there will be no further proceedings in the trial until Monday.

When court adjourned today the defense had practically completed its presentation of proof. Very little remains except the testimony of experts, who will be introduced to show that when Mrs. Bradley shot Brown she was insane. Several prominent alienists, it is understood, will testify early next week. The hypothetical question which will be submitted to them has been prepared, and it contains 13,000 words.

Mrs. Bradley's mother was called today to the stand to clear up a point. Several more of the Salt Lake witnesses were examined as to the conduct and bearing of Mrs. Bradley in that city; Mrs. Bradley's uncle, Lyman Shrewsbury, of California, described instances of insanity and eccentricity in Mrs. Bradley's family; Judge Henderson, Brown's law partner, narrated interviews with Mrs. Bradley relative to her intimacy with Brown, and a number of Brown's letters to Mrs. Bradley were read.

The defendant was not in a buoyant mood during the day. Her manner was dejected, her speech infrequent, and her face pale.

And good, clean, true workmanship characterizes every garment produced at the Grafton factories.

The clothes are cut differently from others. They're distinctive for the reason that each designer instills his own thoughts, his own originality into his work, which is carried out by tailors who thoroughly understand his method.

And there's a great system that not only results in clothing perfection but in lowering the cost of clothing to you. The effort, the thought, the experiment to the work would cost much more without the system that stops all leaks in expenses. A lifetime of experience is to be thanked for that system as perfected today.
