Beauty Contest. The beauty contest created general interest. The three judges, City Clerk Baker, Ald. Fitzgerald and J. A. Carling, did their work quietly, and every woman on the hill dodged when a man came near her for fear the judges had placed her first in the competition. It was not until the sun was going down that the arbiters had the nerve to announce their decision, and when it was done they slid away quietly. Mr. A. E. Lyons, of St. Thomas, was selected as the most beautiful wo-

Matrimonial Mart. The matrimonial mart had a great attraction for the majority, especially old persons. One large gentleman tried his level best to obtain a partner for life, but the fair young things occupying the chaire were somewhat fastidious in their tastes, and he was told to quietly evaporate, while the crowd gave him the laugh.

After a half-hour's selection, the judges thought they had better allow the candidates to work out their own matrimonial salvation, and refused to stamp their approval on the choice of the afternoon. In any event, it was lots of fun.

The waltzing competition brought out a number of excellent dancers, and the first prize was awarded to J. Me-Nerney and partner.

Report of Wreck Exaggerated. There was a great deal of worry among the picnickers in the afternoon as the report was circulated that a train had been wrecked and seven people killed, with many injured. There were a number of anxious people until definite information came that no person had been hurt. Fears, however, were not allayed until the afternoon trains arrived.

In the evening the Twenty-sixth Band rendered a fine programme of music on the balcony of the Invererie.
