LONDON LADY AND SON WERE ALMOST DROWNED

Mrs. Herbert E. Gates, Allen Gates and Two Friends Had Thalling Experience.

Thilling Experience.

Word has been received here of the thrilling experience of Mrs. Herbert E. Gates, who resides at the corner of St. James and Talbot streets, her son Allen, and two friends, when a sail boat, in which they were enjoying an outing on Georgian Bay bapsized.

All were plunged into the water, but managed to reach the upturned boat, to which they clung, benumbed by the foold, for nearly two hours. The oldest of Allen Gates' young friends swam to an island some distance away, but failed to find any person. He again struck out and reached a second island, where he was again unable to secure help. On a third, however, he located a party, who went to the rescue.

In the meantime, one of the boys became benumbed, and fell back exhausted into the water, but was puiled again on to the boat by Allan Gates, who supported himself with one hand and retained as firm grasp upon his friend with the other.

The entire party were in a very sericus condition when taken off the carplaced craft, but now all are recovered.

MAY CROSS SEAS BRAZEN AT

They Are Told That Reciprocity Will Take the Protection Off Dressed Lumber-Bill-Boards Are To Be Filled With Similar Misrepresentations.

The Toronto millionaires, who are fomenting and financing the antireciprocity campaign in Ontario, are introducing some new wrinkles in

One of them is the hiring of a man named Hawkes to try to wheedle the English newcomers into a so-called British League, which is to be used as a donkey-engine to the anti-reciprocity machine. Hawkes is to visit London in an endeavor to round up the newly-arrived English citizens like so many sheep. In North Bay the Sons of England refused to be made tools of for partisan purposes. The English newcomers, who have brought to this country the habit of independent thinking on public questions, and who demand argument and reason from the platform, are offered an insult by Hawkes' paid attempt to exploit them.

Another device of the Toronto Junta is to flood the country with screaming posters. These are to be of two varieties, one for the city, the other for the country. In a few days the billboards of the cities will blossom with lurid appeals to the workingmen to vote against reciprocity on the ground that it will injure Canadian industry and create unemploy-

Our local contemporary is already acting as advance agent of this Ananias propaganda. It attempts to make a sensation over the importation of undressed Georgian pine for use in the new Catholic Church in South London. Georgia pine, undressed, has always been admitted into Canada duty-free, and no party proposes to tax it. It helps Canadians to conserve their more valuable white pine. Under the heading of "Mills of the United States Outbid Mills of This City," it says:
"WHEN RECIPROCITY COMES INTO EFFECT THE DUTY OF 221/2 PER CENT. ON DRESSED LUMBER COMES OFF.

"There is no duty upon joists and other material brought into Canada except when two edges are dressed,

"Reciprocity makes dressed lumber from the United States free "If Contractor Dodd finds it a paying investment to have his joists and sills shipped direct from the southern mills to London, will he not also bring in his dressed material when the duty is removed?
"RECIPROCITY STRIKES AT THE LONDON WORKINGMEN'S EMPLOYMENT."

The assertion that the Canadian duty on dressed lumber will be ished by reciprocity is absolutely false. The reciprocity agreement does not touch the duty on dressed lumber coming from the United States. It makes a heavy reduction in the duty on Canadian lumber entering the makes a heavy reduction in the day on Consider Induce thereing the United States, so that Canadian manufacturers will have a better chance in the United States market. We challenge the Free Press to reproduce the lumber schedules of the reciprocity pact. Either it is guilty of a brazen attempt to deceive the workingmen of London, or it is ignorant of the de-attempt to deceive the workingmen of London, or it is ignorant of the details of the agreement.

The workingmen of London should be on their guard against these attempts to mislead. The reciprocity agreement removes the duty on foodstuffs, but it does not touch manufactured articles to a degree that will deprive a single Canadian of employment. On the other hand, it will provide more business for London's wood-working industries which will be able to ship dressed lumber into the United States in far greater quantities.

Feeling Speeches in Favor of the Trade Agreement at Meeting of Electors Held at Hyde Park.

Hyde Park, Aug. 25.—At a Liberal rally held at this place this evening.

Dr. George A. Routledge, ex-M. P. P., the Liberal candidate for the Com-

the Liberal candidate for the Commons, made a strong address on reciprocity. There was a good crowd in the hall, and they followed his arguments carefully. There is every indication that Dr. Routledge will make great inroads into Mr. Peter Elson's following in London Township particularly. Mr. Elson is not holding any meetings whatever to take up the question of the agreement, depending upon a personal appeal to the electors. There is, however, a strong feeling in favor of the pact in the riding, and Dr. Routledge is in consequence making great progress in his canvass. Mr. Jared Vining made an excellent speech.

MR. M'EVOY READY TO DEBATE QUESTION WITH MR. SIFTON

Mr. Cobban, the Conservative Candidate, Tried to Get Out of Accepting by Stating That Mr. Sifton Is Deaf and That It Would Be Unfair to Ask Him to Debate With Mr. McEvoy.

Mr. J. M. McEvoy is not a favorite with the Conservative organizers owing to his demands for joint debates with the leading Conservatives, who are campaigning in Western Ontario.

It will be remembered that he challenged Major Beatite to a joint debate on the issues of the campaign; but the late member for London would have none of it.

Friday, Mr. McEvoy happened to be in Strathroy on business, and knowing in attempting to take the platform with Mr. Sifton," said Mr. Cobban, the asked for an hour to reply to Mr. Sifton's arguments. This was refused him absolutely by Mr. Cobban, the Conservative meeting there to be addressed by Hon. Clifford Sifton, he asked for an hour to reply to Mr. Sifton's arguments. This was refused him absolutely by Mr. Cobban, the swing to the Conservative candidate.

"I think a joint debate would be a good thing," 'declared Mr. McEvoy.

"Mr. Sifton and myself might discuss this question to the advantage of the audience, and perhaps to the benefit of all parties concerned."

Mr. Cobban made a statement, when he again begged the question, still maintain that it would not be fair to the former minister of the interior to the former minister of the interior to late the platform with Mr. Sifton," said Mr. Cobban, "for he knows perfectly welf that Mr. Sifton's deafness prevents him hearing even what I am saying to you now. ### APPEAL AGAINST THIRD FINE OF LOCAL HOTELMAN IS HEARD

Charles James Seeks to Upset Judgment Which Means That He Loses His License—Crown Attorney Objects to Plea.

The hearing of the James appeal from the third conviction of selling liquor after hours at his King street hotel, the Windsor, was again delayed by Judge Elliott at the court house ethis morning. The argument as to the propriety of allowing the appeal was continued, and his honor will give his decision in the matter on Monday morning.

Crown Attorney McKillop, acting for the license commissioners, contends that the act requires that within 10 days after the summary conviction before the magistrate the defendant must summon the prosecutor to show why the conviction should not be quashed.
