LOOKS BETTER FOR UNIONISTS

Mr. Balfour's Adoption of Referendum Idea in Connection With Tariff Reform Gives Party More Confidence

DUE TO PRESSURE OF FREE TRADER

Liberals Allege Slippiness and Opportunism—Men Ulster Raising Large Fund For Regiment and Arms

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The present election campaign is one of amazing changes. Lord Lansdowne's unexpected presentation of a scheme for the reform of the House of Lords has been surpassed in suddenness by Mr. Balfour's throwing over of tariff reform as an issue of the election.

Lord Rosebery, in the course of a speech today at Manchester, said: "The House of Lords has ceased to exist; it has surrendered its powers to the nation. This is a fact of enormous importance."

Lord Rosebery admitted that it was a deathbed repentance, but he contended that such repentance, if sincere, was valid and valuable.

To Please Free Traders.
Mr. Balfour's adoption of the referendum is generally attributed to pressure from an influential section of the Unionist Free traders, led by Lord Cromer, although it is claimed by the bulk of the Unionist party, once their surprise was over, as a master-stroke of skillful electioneering. The opposition leader's change of tactics took the old Conservative completely aback and caused consternation among the ardent protectionists.

The Liberal, on the other hand, that he would not be so easily deceived as to admit slippiness and opportunism. The Liberal leaders have not had time to adjust themselves to the change in the conditions. David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, speaking at Llandrindod, Wales, tonight, retorted that the cost of a referendum would be £100,000. It was a mere device, he said, to put a more effective weapon in the hands of the wealthy class. The Liberals would have none of it.

Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, speaking at Bristol, said Mr. Balfour's proposal of a referendum was a delusive, dangerous and unworkable, and calculated to destroy free representative government.

The Home Secretary, Mr. Churchill, addressed two meetings at Sheffield tonight. He said no day passed without some Tory leader evincing a strong attachment to the Tory party. Nothing was more astonishing in this wonderful election than the number of Tory leaders who had been overtaken that once proud and powerful party. Mr. Churchill was again subjected to suffragist disturbances, several unruly persons being ejected from the hall.

The Ulster movement is growing apace throughout the province. The Ulster men have taken a strong stand against home rule, and the offers of subscriptions to a fund to be devoted to the purpose of organizing a regiment and the purchase of arms have arisen from $50,000 to $120,000 in the last two days.

Unionists More Confident.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—The London Unionist morning papers today for the first time are full of confidence of a Unionist victory at the polls as a result of Mr. Balfour's acceptance of the referendum. Lord Cromer publishes a letter saying Mr. Balfour's clear declaration should remove all hesitation from the minds of the doubting free trade Unionists.

The stock exchange yesterday reflected the belief in a Unionist victory in the rise of prices of consols and home securities, and in the veering of betting deals in favor of a Unionist majority.

Sentence For Robbery.
WINNIPEG, Nov. 28.—John Watson, alias Sam Case, was sentenced to two years yesterday for highway robbery.

Asks Fund for College.
LONDON, Nov. 28.—In a letter to the Standard the archdeacon of Liverpool appeals for a fund to erect a permanent building for the Anglican divinity college in connection with the Saskatchewan university at Saskatoon.

Murderer Confesses.
CALGARY, Nov. 28.—The inquest on the remains of a man found in the Bow river, near Dunbow east, on June 29 last, terminated tragically yesterday at Okotoks, when Thomas Mitchell Robertson confessed to having shot and killed Tucker Peach, at the same time implicating John Fisk as an accomplice. The body, when found, was headless, but the head was found a couple of weeks ago, and the body then returned and identified. The police returned watching Robertson, who is a brakeman on the C.P.R., running between Field and Medicine Hat. Peach disappeared since last May, and Robertson claimed to have purchased his
