THE HORSE RACES.

The advertised horse racing at the speedway drew a crowd of five hundred, but the races were uninteresting to the majority. The match race advertised to take place between the Jardine horse, and the imported pacer, owned by Mr. Charlott, did not materialize. There were only two entries for the free-for-all, Mr. Stewart's horse and Mr. Charlott's pacer. They were unevenly matched and won easily by the pacer.

In the second class there were three entries, won by a Tobique horse, formerly owned by Mr. Geo. St. Onge of this town. The sun was hot and the dust unbearable at times. No attempt was made as to good management, so autos and teams raced around the track with no one to say "don't do it."

The committee in aid of the Hotel Dieu Hospital, conducted a refreshment booth and did a rushing business.

The judges were: Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Stewart and Mr. McKee.
