CHASE BY A CATAMOUNT. A' SCENE IN THE LIFE OF A' PRONER. I was once told a thrilling adventure of the first settler in Paris, Maine, with a cannound Although I cannot relate it with that lively of ct with which it was told me, still I have semi-ided the faces in thit shetch? I had been on a floating excursion, and as I was returning. I fell in with that off-describ-to performing, "the oldest inhabitant.". He kindly accorsted me, and I gladily entered in a conversion with him. "Young math," said he, "when I first visit-is to suversion with him.
