literation of all the slaves belonging to the British Empire. He, too, had a worldly, selfish mother, whose one object was to push him or in the things of this world. She not only beglected his religious training, but actually opposed anything of the kind, and would rather he had turned out a mar of the world than a Christian man. In spite of his hereditary taint, and in spite also of his environment, an apparently accidental acquaintance at the University led him to take up the nobler and better life, and to be to the wirld an objecties on that a living faith in Christ can make us 'more than conquerors.'—'Christian Age.'

Fancy Work.

Of course it is quite impossible that a man, however gifted, should appreciate the importance of fancy-work to the feminine mind. A woman finds a great deal of pleasure in the embroidery, the lace, the crochet-work or knitting, that she keeps on hand as a relief from other sewing or from the continual

'MESSENGER' PATTERNS

FOR THE BUSY MOTHER

NO. 5856 AND NO. 5824.—SHIRT-WAIST SUIT

A smart model, suitable for development in eny of the season's fabrics, is shown in this design for a shirt-waist costume. It is very neat, and practical for home_making. The blouse waist may be of the same material as the skirt, or may be made up of the lighter fabrics. It is made especially becoming by the deep tucks that extendw over the shoulders in 'Gibson' effect. The skirt is one of the full graceful models in pleated style, and is in round length. Striped novelty suiting was chosen for the making, but mohair, serge, cashmere, silk and panama cloth will all develop attractively. For 36 inches bust measure 2 3-8 yards of 44 inch material will be required for the waist and 6 1-2 yards for the skirt.

Ladies' shirtwaist, No. 5856, sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

Ladies' skirt, No. 5824, sizes for 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure.

This illustration calls for two separate patterns which will be sent to any address on the receipts of 10 cents for each.

NO. 5688-A CHILD'S COAT.

The box modes for girls are among the faverites of the season. Excellent shaping is given the one here shown, which is equally stylish in long or three-quarter length, both of which are provided for in the pattern. The neck is completed by a broad round collar, and the full sleeves are finished by turned-back cuffs. Broadcloth, tweed, serge, cheviot and velvet are all adaptable for the making. For a child of seven years one and five-eighths a child of seven years one and five-eighths yards of fifty-four-inch material will be required. Sizes for 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 years.
