No power can exterminate the seeds of liberty when it has germinated in the blood of brave men. Our religion of to-day is still that of martyrdom: to-morrow it will be the religion of victory.—Mazzini.

When women oppose themselves to the projects and ambitions of men, they excite their lively resentment; if in their youth they meddle with political intrigues, their modesty must suffer.—Mme. de Stæl.

The three states of the caterpillar, larva and butterfly have, since the time of the Greek poets, been applied to typify the human being,—its terrestrial form apparent death and ultimate celestial destination. —Sir H. Davy.

My feet were so badly swollen that I could not wear my shoes. I got Yellow Oil, and to my astonishment it gave instant relief, and two bottles completely cured me. Mra. W. G. McKay, Berwick, Ont.

Much may be done in those little shreds and patches of time which every day produces, and which most men throw away, but which, nevertheless, will make  $p^*$  the end of it no small deduction from the sittle life of man.—Colton.

Set yourself earnestly to see what you were made to do, and then set yourself earnestly to do it; and, the loftier your purpose is, the more sure you will be to make the world richer with every enrichment of yourself.—Phillips Brooks.

Voltaire says that Providence has given us hope and sleep as a compensation for the many cares of life. He might have added laughter, if the wit and originality of humour, necessary to excite it among rational people, were not so rare.—Kant.

NOTHING STRANGE.

Intelligent people, who realize the important part the blood holds in keeping the body in a normal condition, find nothing strange in the number of diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla is able to cure. So many troubles result from impure blood, the best way to treat them is through the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla vitalizes the blood.
