RIPANS
ONE GIVES RELIEF.
NO MATTER WHAT'S THE MATTER
ONE OF THEM WILL DO YOU GOOD.
Rev. Frederick R. Marvin, long-time pastor of the First Congregational Church, of Great Barrington, Mass., and at one time a practicing physician, a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, says of Ripans Tablets: "The formula has long been in favor with medical men, and the method of preparation in the present form is modern and a great convenience. I always keep a vial of the Tablets upon my dressing table, and use them with confidence whenever occasion arises. For a disturbed condition of the digestive organs I know of nothing so good, and for an 'all round' family remedy I do not believe there is anything better to be had."

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Crab-Apple Preserve.—Gather apples after a frost and cook them in water to cover until they can be pricked. Peel, punch out the core and make a syrup of equal weights of sugar and apple. When boiling cook the fruit one-half hour.

Plum Butter.—Let the plums get so ripe that they are soft enough to put through a colander without cooking, and then use the pulp with an equal amount of sugar and boil until done. By following these directions, the butter will not have the strong taste that comes from the outside of the plum, but retains the taste of the pulp.

Rhubarb Jam.—Wash the rhubarb and do not peel it. Take a handful of stalks, lay them on the table and slice into small bits with a sharp knife. Throw the pieces into a stone jar, stir in an equal weight of sugar and let stand over night. In the morning place the jar on the back of the stove, and boil the fruit slowly, stirring occasionally to prevent burning. When cooked thick, put into glass cans. This jam is excellent for roll sponge cake or layer cake, as it is acid and sweet.

Damson Jam.—Fill a stone jar with fine ripe damson plums. Cover, set in a kettle of boiling water and cook till the stones separate from the pulp. Pour into a broad bowl or pan; cool, pick out the stones and mash the pulp till of a smooth consistency. Allow one and one-half pounds of brown sugar to one quart of pulp and boil slowly in a porcelain-lined kettle for an hour or more, skimming it well. Fill small, wide-mouthed stone jars and keep uncovered in a cool, dark place two days. Then cover with paraffine and a paper cap fitted on with white of egg. After awhile it will be firm enough to cut like cheese.

These Tins

Are Found Everywhere.
They're on the pantry shelves of nearly every housewife, and in every grocery. They contain

PURE GOLD BAKING POWDER
The purest and best.
P. G. Flavoring Extracts are good.

Canned Peaches.—Two quarts of yellow peaches, one pint of sugar. Take peaches fresh from the tree; peel and cut at once. Put with the sugar over a slow fire, and when the syrup is formed boil slowly from five to ten minutes. Seal in jars while hot.

Pickled Peaches.—Four quarts of vinegar, three and a half pounds of sugar, whole spices. Place vinegar and sugar over the fire and when boiling add the spices to taste. Drop in peaches, after paring, and when scalded for ten minutes put in jars and cover with the hot syrup.

Pickled Wild Plums.—Two quarts of plums, one quart of vinegar, one pound of sugar, spices. Boil the vinegar and sugar, to which whole spices have been added, fifteen minutes. Prick the plums with a needle, and after putting them into the hot liquid boil slowly for fifteen minutes.

Spiced Peaches.—Seven pounds of fruit, three and a half pounds of sugar, one quart of vinegar, cloves and cinnamon. Pare free-stone peaches, slice, and let stand over night in the sugar. In the morning put in a preserving kettle, adding vinegar, with a few whole cloves and bite of stick cinnamon. When the peaches are clear and tender, put in jars, cover with syrup and seal.

Fairy Rolls.—One cup of butter, two cups of sugar, one cup of milk, and three and two-thirds cups of flour; spread with a knife very thin on buttered sheets of tin, or if you do not have them, invert a baking pan; bake in a moderate oven; cut in squares and roll while hot. If they become hard before they are rolled return to the oven a second. This is very nice to eat with ice-cream.

NERVOUS Troubles are due to impoverished blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier and NERVE TONIC.
