A TEMPERANCE STORY

BY J. JACKSON WRAY

Cloth With fine Photogravure Portrait of the Author, and Six Full-page Illustrations $1.00

WE HAVE JUST ISSUED in a handsome Canadian edition this fine temperance story of the late J. Jackson Wray. The Joyful News thus refers to it: "This, as its name implies, is a temperance story, and is told in the lamented author's most graphic style. We have never read anything so powerful since 'Danesbury House,' and this book in stern and pathetic earnestness even excels that widely-known book. It is worthy a place in every Sunday-school and village library; and as the last utterance of one whose writings are so deservedly popular, it is sure of a welcome. It should give decision to some whose views of Local Option are hazy."

PRACTICAL TALKS

.... ON

Important Themes

TO YOUNG CONVERTS, OLDER CHRISTIANS
AND THE UNCONVERTED

BY ----

Rev. H. T. Crossley.

CLOTH, $1.00

THE author tells us in his preface: "This book of Practical Talks on Important Themes may be regarded as a souvenir volume of our evangelistic work. We publish it in response to many requests for such a volume, hoping to further instruct and confirm those who are new converts, and, at the same time, assist to clearer views of truth and privilege those who are more experienced Christians, and also to induce the unconverted to become Christians." Those who know Mr. Crossley need not be told that his book is terse, practical, clear, and evangelistic in its tone. It is a book of nearly 400 pages, clearly printed and strongly bound, and contains portraits of Mr. Crossley and of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hunter and family.
