Mercantile Summary.

THE disastrous fire in Halifax which ruined Moir & Sons' building will be remembered. But by the energy of Mr. Moir a splendid new building has been brought so near completion that the firm expects to occupy it in August. A boiler house and engine room will be built at the south side of the main building.

A visitor to Lake Temiscamingue tells the Ottawa Citizen that the crops in that district are better than for many years. The water of that part of the upper Ottawa county is very low indeed. As a consequence one lumber firm has about 80,000 logs stranded. The galena mine at that lake has been pumped dry.

A DISSOLUTION of the wholesale stationery firm of Austin & Robertson, in Montreal, is announced. Mr. Robertson has arranged to buy the interest of his late partner, and will continue the business alone under the old style.

—Messrs. Porter, Kemp & Teskey, dealers at wholesale in fancy goods and fishing tackle, have also dissolved. Mr. Kemp retires, and the business is continued by Messrs. Porter & Teskey.

HENRY MALONEY, who kept an hotel in Penetanguishene for several years, invested some money in Chas. O'Reilly's general store business. Early in 1891 the latter failed, and Maloney bought the stock with the hope of saving himself from loss. This was evidently a mistaken proceeding, for he now assigns to Campbell & May. —About two months ago Samuel Nesbitt began the furniture business in this city. About three weeks ago a fire occurred in his premises, and although insured, we are told that for some reason he has been unable to realize on his policies as expected. In consequence of this he has been compelled to assign.
