BULGARIAN BRIGANDS.

A BAND, having captured some merchants, demanded a ransom of £2,000, to obtain which a youth of the hostages was sent. After arduous efforts he brought back £400 in a bag, being all he could raise. The chief came out to receive him, and, kicking the bag aside, asked him how much he had brought. On being told, he calmly replied, "Go again, and bring every pound of that £2,000 by Saturday, or your father and the rest will lose their heads." The young fellow, in terrible grief, asked if he might interview his father ere he went away. That was kindly granted, and the old man was brought and allowed to converse with him. While this was proceeding, however, the chief rather sternly interrupted them, saying, "I think it best to show you that I am not to be trifled with." Whereupon the father was instantly seized, his head was struck off, taken up and then tossed toward his horrified son. "There! take that, and say the other heads will follow if that money doesn't come soon!" The money came.

Still more ferocious is the following:—A Bulgarian priest, known to be travelling to a certain place with the collections of his diocese, was pursued thither. The brigands, however, were too late—a day behind. While the inhabitants of the little town were away at their daily labours in the fields and woods, the band entered it, but to their chagrin found that they had miscalculated, and so had lost their intended victim. They then met a girl and two boys. They finally hewed them limb from limb, and then nailed or hung up their ghastly remains, where the returning parents might weep their eyes out over them.

In another case, having made captives and being pursued, the brigands bribed an old ferryman to take them over a swift river. Once across, they turned on the poor man and flung him into the stream.

The brigands we have seen so far have revealed no touch of romance in their expressions, but frequently a brutal ferocity coupled with low intelligence.—From Travel Tide.

JOHN LABATT'S INDIA PALE ALE & XXX BROWN STOUT.

Highest Awards and Medals for Purity and Excellence at Centennial Exhibition, Philadelphia, 1876; Canada, 1876; Australia, 1877; and Paris, France, 1878.

TESTIMONIALS SELECTED.

Prof. H. H. Croft, Public Analyst, Toronto, says:—"I find it to be perfectly sound, containing no impurities or adulterations, and can strongly recommend it as perfectly pure and a very superior malt liquor."

John B. Edwards, Professor of Chemistry, Montreal, says:—"I find them to be remarkably sound ales, brewed from pure malt and hops."

Rev. P. J. Ed. Page, Professor of Chemistry, Laval University, Quebec, says:—"I have analyzed the India Pale Ale manufactured by John Labatt, London, Ontario, and I have found it a light ale, containing but little alcohol, of a delicious flavour, and of a very agreeable taste and superior quality, and compares with the best imported ales. I have also analyzed the Porter XXX Stout, of the same brewery, which is of excellent quality; its flavour is very agreeable; it is a tonic more energetic than the above ale, for it is a little richer in alcohol, and can be compared advantageously with any imported article."

Scrofulous Affections

Humors are caused by a vitiated condition of the blood which carries disease to every tissue and fibre of the body. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purifies and invigorates the blood, and eradicates all traces of the scrofulous taint from the system.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alternative, and honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine compounded.—W. F. Flower, M. D., D. D. S., Greenville, Tenn.

For years my daughter was troubled with Scrofulous Humors, Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. She took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was

Of the Eyes, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys, indicate the presence of Scrofula in the system, and suggest the use of a powerful blood purifier. For this purpose Ayer's Sarsaparilla has always proved itself unequalled.

I was always afflicted with a Scrofulous Humor, and have been a great sufferer. Lately my lungs have been affected, causing much pain and difficulty in breathing. Three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla have relieved my lungs, and improved my health generally.—Lucia Cass, 360 Washington ave., Chelsea, Mass.

I was severely troubled, for a number of years, with an affection of the Stomach, and with Weak and Sore Eyes—the result of inherited Scrofula.

Cured

Since then, whenever she feels debilitated, she resorts to this medicine, and always with most satisfactory results.—Geo. W. Fullerton, 32 W. Third st., Lowell, Mass.

I was very much afflicted, about a year ago, with Scrofulous Sores on my face and body. I tried several remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Since using this medicine the sores have all disappeared, and I feel, to-day, like a new man. I am thoroughly restored to health and strength.—Taylor James, Versailles, Ind.

a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla my eyes and stomach have ceased to trouble me, and my health has been restored.—E. C. Richmond, East Saugus, Mass.

Three years ago I was greatly troubled with my Liver and Kidneys, and with severe pains in my back. Until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla I obtained no relief. This medicine has helped me wonderfully. I attribute my improvement entirely to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and gratefully recommend it to all who are troubled as I have been.—Mrs. Celia Nichols, 8 Albion st., Boston, Mass.
