

ANNEX III

RELATING TO ANTI-DUMPING AND THE OPERATION OF ARTICLE VI OF THE 1960 TRADE AGREEMENT

In view of Canada becoming a party to the Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade the two Governments agree that the provisions of Article VI of the Canada/Australia Trade Agreement of 12 February 1960 will no longer be implemented between them and accordingly agree as follows.

The Government of Canada, in the application of its anti-dumping legislation, will accord to goods which are the growth, produce or manufacture of Australia, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to goods which are the growth, produce or manufacture of countries party to the Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

The Government of Australia, in the application of its anti-dumping legislation, will accord to goods which are the growth, produce or manufacture of Canada, treatment no less favourable than that accorded to any other country with the exception of New Zealand.

Furthermore, the two Governments agree that:

- (1) the appropriate authority in each country will notify the Government of the other country of the initiation of an anti-dumping investigation in relation to goods which are the growth, produce or manufacture of the other country and the appropriate authority concerned will receive and take account of representations made to it;
- (2) the appropriate authority of each Government will inform the Government of the other country of changes in its anti-dumping legislation and significant changes in the administration of such legislation; and
- (3) the provisions of this Annex shall remain in force for an initial period of one year and thereafter shall be subject to the right of either Government to terminate upon 30 days notice but in any event shall not extend beyond the date of termination of the Canada/Australia Trade Agreement of 12 February 1960.
