Revenue, Customs and Excise and, in the United Mexican States, the General Directorate of Customs of the Secretariat of Revenue and Public Credit;

- b) "customs laws" means the laws relating to the importation, exportation, transhipment and transit of goods across national boundaries and all other laws enforced or administered by the respective Customs Administrations;
- sprie dens leurs "offence" means any violation or attempted violation of the customs laws.

ARTICLE II

Scope of Agreement

- Subject to the laws of the respective Parties, the Parties through their Customs Administrations shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement:
 - assist each other in the prevention, a) investigation and repression of oriences; and
 - upon request, assist each other by b) providing information to be used in administering and enforcing the customs laws; and