

The commemorative activities will include a church service on board ship, a luncheon hosted by the Canadian government and a conference, organized by Memorial University in collaboration with the Roosevelt Institute of New York City, to be held in St. John's, August 12-13.

The Canadian warship, the HMCS Margaree, and the American warship, the USS Valdez, will be on hand in Argentia and St. John's to evoke the context of the historic meeting.
