int. The other to remain with a.

Indians came t from the low: to gain Intelli take Prisonen overed fo great at Crown-Point able to bring d viscable to return eat Danger the Excellency invite der to descryth as a farther L er scalp or the n of the faid Pr soner, a Pieces othes, besides t ned with the A going back, a and acquaint the at they had her likewife alarm at the French h nd that they would ScheneEtade, or t iver, or perha anding Officer in the Mohan Excellency, co ed, the Mohan the French For e to have a b y wrote to M the French For ces of the Frm to intimidate the Indians, or to amuse them, with Design to frustrate the Treaty which he intended to have with them; and that he was to assure the Indians, that they could be in no Danger from the French: However, that they might see that he would omit nothing which they might think ecessary for their Security, he had ordered a lieutenant of Militia, with thirty Men, to reinbree the lower Castle, and had likewise ordered he Captain of Militia near the upper Castle, to shift the Indians there in fortifying their Castle, and hold himself in Readiness to support them on any Imergency.

One John Colan, a Frenchman, who fome Years nce had removed from Canada, and fettled and narried at Schenestade, and who has fince that ime lived in good Reputation there, was fent by lajor Glen to inform his Excellency, that one aron, a noted Mehawk Sachim, who, with feveral thers of the Six Nations, had been last Spring in anada to treat with the Governor there, did then ntertain two Cahunaga Indians. This Man, John dan, acquainted his Excellency, that having diff overed the Cahnuaga Indians, he told them he was Frenchman, and was defirous of returning to his wn Country, on which they began prefently to. opole to him Methods for his Elcape; at which ime, this Aaron coming near them, he express'd s Fears of being difcovered by him. They fwered, that he need not fear Aaron; for he was eir Friend, and defigned to go with them. As ey proposed to him to escape privately by himself, d to meet them at a Place they named, he told em of his Fears, in that Case, of meeting with e French Indians while he was alone. They fwered, that if he drefs'd himfelf like an Indian, French Indians would do him no Hurt, without It calling to him; upon which, if he stopp'd and call'd