

DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA, WEST OF THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAIN, TO WIT:

BE IT REMEMBERED, That on the twenty-fourth day of May [A. D. 1824.] in the forty-eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America, JOSEPH DODDRIDGE of the said district hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following to wit:

"Notes on the settlement and Indian wars of the Western parts of Virginia and Pennsylvania, from the year 1763 until the year 1788 inclusive. Together with a view of the state of society, and manners of the first settlers of the Western Country. By the Rev. Dr. Jos. Doddridge."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned." And also to an act entitled, "An act supplementary to an act, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching historical and other prints."

In testimony whereof I John Webster Clerk of the said court, have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of my office the date above mentioned.

 J. WEBSTER Clerk, U. S. district
L. S. Court West of the Allegeny mountain.
