

CONTENTS.

	Page.
FOREWORD	3
INTRODUCTORY LETTER	5
LETTER 2.— Sales and Purchases —Moral and Legal Duties of a Seller—Misrepresentations—Concealments—Misdescriptions—Sale with all Faults—Encumbrances—Value—Rent—Conditions of Sale—Deposit—Buying-in an Estate—Puffing—Agent not Pursuing his Authority—Auctioneers' and Agents' Charges	7
LETTER 3.— Sales and Purchases—Continued. —Purchaser relieved against what Encumbrances and Defects—Purchaser not bound to disclose Advantages—Bound by Rights of Way, Faults in Mines—False Representations by a Stranger—Inquiry after Encumbrances—Notice of Lease—Taking Possession	16
LETTER 4.— Sales and Purchases—Continued. —Purchaser's Conduct in Sale-room—Countermand of a Bidding at an Auction—Verbal Contradiction of Particulars of Sale—Agent Bidding beyond his Authority—Principal denying the Authority—Agent buying in his own name—Purchase in the name of Another—Purchase by a Trustee of the Trust Property—Conveyance in the name of a Stranger, or a Wife, Child, or Grandchild—Joint Purchase—Desisting to bid in favour of another Person . .	21
LETTER 5.— Sales and Purchases—Continued. —Written Agreement essential—Letters—Offers and Acceptance—Letters by Post—Receipt—Price of the Estate—Price to be fixed by Arbitrators—Investment of Deposit in Stock—Loss by selling or buying Stock—Interest—Loss by Fire or otherwise before the Conveyance—Fire Insurance—Timber-Nuisance—Buildings, Supports, Working of Mines Water	27