CAR STRIKERS TO ARBITRATE ISSUE

Both Employers and Men Claim a Victory at Indianapolis.

NO UNION RECOGNITION

But Company Had to Submit to Demand for Arbitration.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—(Can. Press).—The strike of the employees of the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal Co. was settled late today thru the efforts of Gov. Samuel M. Beason. The employees won their demand for arbitration, but nothing is said about recognition of the union in the terms of settlement.

Street car service is to be resumed within 12 hours, according to the terms of the settlement of the strike, which also provides against any further interference with the operation of cars.

All the men who were in the employ of the company Friday night, Oct. 31, when the strike was called, and all employees who had been discharged on account of joining the union, are to be reinstated by the company, with full seniority rights and without prejudice. The company, however, is not compelled to restate men who engaged in violence during the strike, but the refused men may appeal to the public utilities commission of Indiana for a hearing.

Commission to Decide. Disputes as to hours, wages and other grievances will be referred to a utilities commission, unless the company and its employees reach a mutual agreement within ten days.

The strike has been on a week and has resulted in the death of four people and the injuring of about 100, among them a number of policemen. Considerable damage was done to property; trolley wires were cut and car windows broken. The company had quartered about 500 imported strike breakers in various parts of the city.

Both claim victory in the settlement of the strike. The union officials declare that while they are disappointed in that they did not obtain recognition of the union, they obtained their main contention, which was a demand for arbitration of all disputes between the employees and the company.

Canadian Pacific Railway. That the traveling public appreciate the improved service in Winnipeg recently established by the Canadian Pacific Railway is shown by the popularity which the new Western train, "The Gate City Express," has received since its inauguration. Leaving Toronto at 3:30 p.m. daily, and arriving in Winnipeg 8:00 a.m. second day, this train is found to at once embody all the convenience of a day-night departure from the Union Station, Toronto, together with an early hour of arrival at Winnipeg. The high-class modern equipment carried on the train includes Compartment Library, Observation Car, Standard Sleeping Car, Tourist Sleeping Car, Dining Car, First-class Coach and Colonist Car.

The present Vancouver Express will continue to leave Toronto at 10:20 p.m. daily, and consists of the same equipment as the "Gate City Express." This train is the best to take for points west of Winnipeg, but for Winnipeg and east the "Gate City Express" is the right train to travel by.

TEACHING THE SAN BLAS INDIANS

Panama's Most Secluded Tribe Finally Opens Its Doors to the American School Teacher.

The Republic of Panama contains about 85,000 Indians, still living under the tribal form of government, and yielding allegiance and obedience to no power whatsoever. The long record of cruelties and oppression practiced by the early Spaniards upon these people has bred in them an ingrained hatred of the Spaniards and distrust of all whites. The San Blas have held themselves most rigidly sequestered from the view of the world, and it is the policy of the United States to avoid trouble with the aborigines as no official effort has been made to open up the country. Indeed, when a San Blas chief refused his right to excavate sand upon one of the San Blas beaches for use on the canal the United States accepted his refusal as final. When he asked for the return of his land, the United States refused to open up the country. He has succeeded in getting permission to open a school at San Blas, the chief San Blas village. The permission was accorded after months of negotiation, and it is perhaps worth noting that the Indians stipulated that Miss Cooke should bring her medicine—thus affording a new proof that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast."

She was hospitably received, notwithstanding an attempt had been made previous to her arrival to prejudice the feeling of the people against her and her work. The Indians, however, were very desirous that their children should acquire a knowledge of English, and it is to this task that about 85,000 Indians, still living under the tribal form of government, and yielding allegiance and obedience to no power whatsoever. The long record of cruelties and oppression practiced by the early Spaniards upon these people has bred in them an ingrained hatred of the Spaniards and distrust of all whites. Life in Nirvana is very simple and exceedingly lonely at times. Food supplies, to which the average person is accustomed, cannot be obtained in the village, and have to be brought from Colon. The Indians live principally on fish, turtle meat, a few native vegetables and fruit. Beefsteak is never seen, as there is no cattle. They live in great communal houses, 150 feet by 60, or thereabouts, accommodating a number of families, each family having one room.

How Drugs Wreck the Nerves

Every dose of drugs that you put into your stomach weakens your nerves. Every time you kill a pain or an ache by unnatural means—by stupefying the nerves with poisonous drugs, you are hurting them, and anyone can see that in time, by steady dosing, your nervous system will be broken down completely.

Drugs not only weaken the nerves, but they upset the stomach, rendering it unable to supply the nourishment for the nerves and organs of the body. Drugs destroy the digestive juices of the stomach; therefore, you do not get the proper nourishment from your food. You may eat heartily, but if your digestive apparatus is out of order you won't get much good out of your food. Their stomachs with drugs trying to overcome the disease for it, but the trouble is really caused by drugging.

The life of the nerves is electricity. If they are weak it is because they lack electricity. Electricity is the nourishment which the stomach generates for the support of the nerves and organs, and when it is unable to generate this force it must have artificial aid. This electricity—artificial electricity, as applied by Dr. McLaughlin's Belt.

My method of curing disease is to go down to the very foundation of the trouble and remove the cause. When I have removed the cause, Nature will do the rest. If your nerves are weak I restore to the stomach the power it has lost, which in turn gives the necessary nourishment to the nerves.

Electricity is a relief from the old system of drugging. It does by natural means what you expect drugs to do by unnatural means. It is Nature's way of curing disease, for it gives back to the nerves and organs the power they have lost, which is their life.

My Belt is easily and comfortably worn next to the body during the night, and gives out a continuous stream of that strength-building, nerve-feeding force which is the basis of all health.

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I was cured of my case of Rheumatism and Piles. I would not take $100 for the benefits I have received from it so far and be without it. I can recommend it to anyone suffering from any troubles for which it is recommended.
