PIONEERS OF EVOLUTION:

FROM

THALES to HUXLEY,

With an Intermediate Chapter on the Causes of Arrest of the Movement.

By

EDWARD CLODD

(President of the Folk-Lore Society),

AUTHOR OF

"The Childhood of the World"; "The Story of Creation," etc.

Illustrated with Portraits in Photogravure of

CHARLES DARWIN, Professor HUXLEY, Mr. HERBERT SPENCER,

and Mr. A. R. WALLACE.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE:

THIS book needs only brief introduction. It attempts to tell the story of the origin of the Evolution idea in Ionia, and, after long arrest, of the revival of that idea in modern times, when its profound and permanent influence on thought in all directions, and, therefore, on human relations and conduct, is apparent. . . .

In indicating the parts severally played in the Renascence of Evolution by a small group of illustrious men, the writer, through the courtesy of Mr. Herbert Spencer, has been permitted to see the original documents which shew that the theory of Evolution as a whole, i.e., as dealing with the non-living, as well as with the living, contents of the Universe, was formulated by Mr. Spencer in the year preceding the publication of the Origin of Species.
