

will eat the passover," he was not able to eat the passover, for the simple reason that the passage of the exterminating angel over Egypt could not be eaten, but the lamb which was eaten in remembrance of the "passover."

By the same figure of speech, the body and blood of Christ could not be eaten, but the bread, which represented that body, could be eaten, and the bread had then to be called that body by the same reason, and by the same rule of language that the lamb was called the passover.

Just in the same way and by the same rule of language, that when we look at the marble statue of Monseigneur Bourget, we say :—"This is Monseigneur Bourget, though it is not Monseigneur Bourget at all."

3rd. I will never be a Roman Catholic, because every Roman Catholic bishop and priest is forced to perjure himself every time he explains a text of the Holy Scriptures. Yes, my Lord, though it is a very big and hard
