

DATES OF LETTERS (PAGE 277)

Before her attempt at escape. Mme. Breshkovsky had written several letters to her friends, dating them in advance, and these were sent out to the post, day by day.

PRINTING PRESSES (PAGE 329)

These were probably the small presses that she had found so unsatisfactory. Her American friends had not been able to send a rotary press.