

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

Discoveries and Explorations

| | |
|---|------------|
| A Period of Myth and Mystery—The Sagas of Iceland and the Voyages of the Norsemen—Cabot's Place in History—Comparison with Columbus—Champlain and Cartier—Founding of Quebec—Discovery of the Great Lakes—La Salle and the Interior—The French and the English—Gradual Unrolling of the New World's Map | PAGE 17 |
|---|------------|

CHAPTER II

The Indians of Early Canada

| | |
|---|----|
| Their Place in Tradition and Story—Their Character and Customs—A History Written in Fire and Blood over the Whole Continent—Two Sides to the Record—The Indian of the Past and the Present—Romantic Pictures and Black Shadows—The Iroquois and the French—Heroism of Daulac—The Lachine Massacre—The English Colonists and the Indians—The British Government's Treatment of the Indian—The Iroquois of New York and the Revolution—Thayendanegea and Tecumseh—Darkness Dawning into Light | 43 |
|---|----|

CHAPTER III

The Jesuit Missions and Pioneer Christianity

| | |
|---|----|
| The Pioneers of Empire in New France—The Jesuits and Their Work—Extraordinary Character of these Black-robed Martyrs to their Faith—Success with the Hurons—Failure Amongst the Iroquois—A Long Story of Privation, Self-sacrifice, Adventure, Torture and Frequent Death—Lallemant and Brébeuf—The Early Church in Quebec—Laval and Briand and Plessis—Difficulties and Disputes, Power and Progress—Loyalty to Great Britain and Wisdom in Administration | 66 |
|---|----|

CHAPTER IV

The Land of Evangeline

| | |
|---|----|
| Founding of Acadie—Champlain and Du Monts and Poutrincourt—Sufferings and Hardships of the Early Settlers—Sir William Alexander and the English Claims—Internal and External Hostilities—The Story of | iv |
|---|----|