'Officer 666" a Funny Farce

That spacessful melodramatic farce, "Officer 666," which Cohan & Harris announce for presentation here at the Princess Theatre, all next week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday, is a play full of risible tricks and melonatic moments that start a wave of shivery thrills chasing each other up and down the spine, only to end in an uncontrollable burst of laughter at funny antics of this particular sleuth, who, in an unguarded moment, is induced to part with his uniform for a brief period, while the borrower of it is endeavoring to rescue a lady fair, from a web of complications woven around her thru the machinations of an internationally famous pic-ture thief. "Officer 666" is easily the best farce of the year. It has all the ements that go to make a successful play, least of which is a charming love story where'n Cupid matches his wits against the stern arm of the law and wins a complete victory. The Wednesday matines is at popular prices.

Grace George in "Carnival"

No premiere of gecent seasons will possess the wide interest that attaches to the first performance of "Carnival" at the Alexandra, Monday evening by Grace George. Written by Compton McKenzie from his famous book of the same title, it will be watehed by all of literary and theatrical New York and London. Mr. McKenzie's place as one of the most brilliant writers in England, and Miss George's niche in the hearts of American playgoers, make an unusually important combination. Additional interest is contributed by the fact that Mr. McKenzie will play the leading male role in Miss George's support. The supporting company will number more than twenty-five. The action runs thru two parts, divided into four acts and six scenes. The scenic production is said to be exceptionally striking. Seats are now on sale.

'The Old Homestead' Coming

That most welcome of New England dramas, Denman Thompson's "The Old Homestead," will be offered at the Grand next week. With interest undimmed by years and telling its story with a quaint pathos that has made it a leader among dramas of the heart, the dear old play seems to be winning hosts of friends with every season's advent. There is a strong moral to the story of "The Old Homestead," which makes its appeal to the heart, and it is evidently this quality in the play that has given it a popularity that never seems to grow old. The famous double quartet of farm hands and the Grace Church choir are the leading musical features of the production.

Bright Show Booked at Shea's

Manager Shea has one of the biggest and brightest shows of the season booked for Shea's Theatre next week. All the features of the bill are entirely new and novelty, comedy and music will find their places on the program. The headline act for next week is Jesse L. Lasky's "In the Barracks." This is the first appearance here of this big musical spectacle, and the Lasky productions are too well known to need any introduction. The spectal attractions for the week are special attractions for the week are bigby Bell and company, presenting George V. Hobart's one-act farce en-titled "It Happened in Topeka," and Jackson and McLaren, the famous Aus-tralian woodcharger. al an woodchoppers.

"Follies" Show at Star

Barney Gerard's newest "Follies of the Day," recognized as the most upto-date and original show, will be seen with an all-star cast at the Star next week. The book of the "Follies" was written by Barney Gerard, who is conceded to be one of the best writers now before the public. Mr. Gerard has this year revived a new edition of his political satire of four years ago entitled "The Big Election." People and events of the hour are cleverly burlesqued. The imitations are so perfect, one would imagine the people

If you suffer from chronic indigestion, forget about the stomach and pay attention to the condition of the liver and bowels. Ten to one that Ten to one that. is where the real trouble lies. The liver gets sluggish and fails to filter the bile from the blood, the bowels become constipated and the whole digestive system is upset. As to cure, you cannot do better than to read of Mr. Barrett's experience with Dr. Chase's Kilney-Liver Pills. There is no treatment so prompt and thoroughly effective. Mr. J. D. S. Barrett, Nelson, B. C., and formerly of Twillingate Nfid., writes; -- "For several years I was a great sufferer from indigertion. ast bit of food caused me considerable trouble and often I could scarcely eat a meal a day. Cabaret Show at Gayety

Next Monday matines at the Gayety Theatre B. E. Foirester will present "American Beauties," with Cook and Lorenz and an entirely new show. From reports "American Beauties" is said to possess swiftness and novel-ty, tunefulness and rennement. B. E. Forrester has given his "American Beauties" gergeous costumes, and has out-generaled himself in scenic investiture. This much is known, that the reproduction of the "Abbey," which is the most beautiful Cabaret in Paris, does credit to the mechanism of stage-
