FAVORITE IS BEATEN IN CIRCUIT FEATURE

California Mare Fails in Bellevue--Stratford Stake—Tommy Murphy Again.

Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—Tommy Murphy's horses again carried off the chief honors at the third day's racing of the grand circuit meeting at Belmont track today, winning two firsts and two second moneys in four starts.

Principal interest centred in the 2.06 trot for the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel stake of $3000 with nine starters. On her sensational performances so far this season, Esperanza, the California mare, was selected to win, but the victor turned up in Harvey Ernest's Ima Jay, which won first money after Murphy's Royal Mack had taken the first heat.

The veteran, Ed. Geers, won the two-year-old Liberty stake of $2000 with Brusiloff, beating Murphy's Norman Dillon in a red hot nose finish in the first heat and taking the second somewhat easier from Princess Etawah.

A novelty was furnished by the free-for-all pace in which the purse of $1200 was sub-divided into three purses of $400 each, and awarded to the horses, according to their positions at each quarter. Miss Harris M. took the race in straight heats and won the largest portion of the purse. Ben Earl finished second and Roan Hal third in the summary and in the amount of money won.

Budlight won the 2.12 pace in straight heats. Summary—Two-year-old trot, 2 in 3 heats, purse $2000:

Wilson Todd Won In Straight Heats

The initial matinee of the newly-formed Queen City Driving Club was held at Hillcrest Park yesterday afternoon, with a slow class and an exhibition mile by Darky Todd, the fast pace having been declared off.

The black daughter of Kentucky Todd, 3 (2.08¾), driven by the veteran Jack Fleming, paced a sensational mile over the long and heavy track in 2.18¾.

In the slow class, a good green pacer turned up in John Meade's Wilson Todd, by Jim Todd (2.08¾), who won the event in three straight heats. Summary:

Series is Uncertain; Baseball is Groggy

John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, is of the opinion that the major leagues should have closed their season around the 20th of this month and then staged the world series.

"Nobody knows if the world series will be staged," said McGraw. "The United States Government has given no assurance that the series will not be interfered with and it is hard to say just what will happen. I hope it will take place.

"The work or fight order came like a bolt out of the blue to the ball clubs and their defense at Washington was poorly handled and without any real argument being laid before the United States Government," was McGraw's retort when asked what means organized baseball took to be allowed to continue.

"The New York club has no complaint to make. The fans have supported us handsomely and I am only sorry that the Giants did not stay in front," remarked McGraw when talking of the falling off in patronage in some major league cities.

Fred Mitchell has a great team, in McGraw's opinion, and has been given great work by his pitching staff. McGraw is the authority for the statement that it will take a real smart club to best the Cubs in a series.

The New York players were taken on a trip around the city as guests of Mayor Church yesterday, and Manager McGraw was shown the harbor and island from a launch. The team left for Cincinnati last night.

Rodriquez, the former Rochester player, and who has been working in the utility role for McGraw, is now a Leaf. McGraw left him here last night. He will play first base for Toronto at Hamilton today.

The Leafs will motor up to Hamilton today as the guests of the S.P.A. Cosy Dolan will join the team in Rochester.

NO MORE SOFT JOBS FOR BALL PLAYERS

Philadelphia, Aug. 14.—The employment of professional ballplayers in shipyards "more for the purpose of bolstering up teams than to expedite the shipbuilding program," will no longer be countenanced by the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

In an order issued today by the vice-president, Howard Coonley, ballplayers are placed on the same footing as all other workmen, and yards that offer high salaries to obtain their services will not be reimbursed by the corporation.

Mr. Coonley declared that he favored sport, but that it should be conducted on a high plane in the present emergency and the professional athlete should be treated as are all other workers.

PLAYS PICTURES AND MUSIC,

"The Haughty Wife."

Reserved seats are on sale today at the Royal Alexandra Theatre for next week's production by Edward H. Robins and his players of Fred Jackson's Harris Theatre success, "The Haughty Wife." The chief funmakers in "The Haughty Wife" centre about the efforts of a husband to cure his wife of flirting. In every other comedy so far produced it had always been the other way about. Perhaps one of the funniest situations ever given to the stage is the scene where the wife decides to elope with another man. This scheme the husband learns of, and instead of taking the severe measure, he insists upon accompanying the wife and acting as chaperon. He even goes so far as to offer them the use of his summer residence, including himself, of course This scene in less skilful hands than Jackson's would have a tendency to become coarse, but as treated by the author it has a constant tendency to invoke continual laughter. The stage mountings for "The Haughty Wife" will be just as elaborate as any of the former Robins' productions, and will in every way be the equal of the presentation made in New York at the Harris Theatre. Matinees will be as usual, on Wednesday and Saturday.

Next Week at Shea's.

Senor Weston, world-famous concert pianist, will headline the bill at Shea's Theatre next week. His repertoire includes both classical and popular numbers. Tamee Kajiyama offers a wonderful demonstration of mind concentration and performs many unique feats. Dunbar's "Tennessee Ten," in a plantation sketch, sing, dance and provoke much laughter. Elida Morris is a character comedienne, whose ability has always been recognized here, while Jessie Hayward and Company will present Miss Hayward's latest sketch, "Air Castle Kate." Roode and France, in a new aerial offering; Conway and Fields, two clever entertainers, and Jewell's "Circus Day in Toyland" complete a well balanced bill of novelty, comedy and music.

Loew's Next Week.

Social conditions as they exist today, with special emphasis on the divorce evil, are graphically and startlingly shown in "The Blindness of Divorce," the feature film next week at Loew's Theatre and Winter Garden. In the picturized version, the wife, tho guiltless of wrong, is ostracized by society and driven to the depths, thru no fault of her own. George Kincaid Davis and his fifteen lads and lassies, offering a classy Scotch revue of songs and dances, will top the vaudeville, which also includes Alexander, the novelty man; Canfield and Cohen, musical comedy comedians; Lewis and Raymond, the "ballroom musicians"; the Brittons, monarchs of the xylophone; and the Sherlocks, "the mystery pair."

Mrs. Castle at Hippodrome.

"The First Law," the Pathe five-reel feature, starring Mrs. Vernon Castle, will be the headline attraction at the Hippodrome next week. It gives Mrs. Castle every opportunity to display that ability as an actress that has placed her in the foremost rank of film stars. The Venetian Gypsies are singers, dancers and instrumentalists of pronounced ability, while Ching Ling-Toy in feats of magic and illusion is said to be unsurpassed. Amanda Hendricks is a singing comedienne with some new songs, while Minus and Bryant have a new song and dance offering. Marietta, billed as the Queen of the Air, performs some daring feats. Bibbs and Gibbs in "She Moved the Bridge" complete a good bill.

Gayety.

The feminine members of the "Oh, Girl" Company, which will be at the Gayety Theatre all next week, are all competent burlesquers and are made much of in the production. Ida Emmerson, who deserves first mention, is well known wherever burlesque is known. Mamie Mitchell is also widely known and, in the present production shows her ability as a soubrette with her accustomed vivaciousness. Her role calls upon her to portray a vampire type. Jessie Taylor is an especially talented and attractive ingenue, and Blanche Rose proves herself to be a most clever performer.

Star.

The question which the burlesque devotee is most apt to ask himself after going to the Star Theatre next week to see the "Lid Lifters" is, "Where does Lew Talbot get them?" The fact is that Talbot has some secret which enables him to capture the prettiest, most bewitching girls in the chorus-girl market. His "Lid Lifters" just bubbles over with entrancing feminine loveliness and looks as tho it was recruited just simply to compete with other choruses for a beauty prize.

Kitty Gordon at Regent.

Next week's program at the Regent Theatre will be a decided change from that of this week. The story concerns a young girl whose mother thought her best education was in meeting all types of men, in order that she might learn the outside world for herself. This makes the story, "Tinsel," different from ordinary stories, and because of that difference it is very interesting. Kitty Gordon takes the part of the mother and is seen in one of the most entertaining parts she has taken in recent months. The photography is superb. The famous star is exceeding entrancing and wears some very beautiful gowns. Coupled with the music of the famous Regent orchestra and other features, the program will be one of the best this year.

Hayakawa at Strand.

Very beautiful and very tragic is "The City of Dim Faces," the latest sterling vehicle for Sessue Hayakawa, in Paramount pictures, which will be displayed at the Strand Theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday. In subtlety of portrayal the distinguished Japanese actor has no equal in the realm of the silent drama. His admirable artistry has never manifested itself to greater advantage than in "The City of Dim Faces," which is a story as poetical as it is tragic of Chinese life in the romantic and aromatic oriental quarter of San Francisco. In this photodrama Hayakawa has the part of a young Chinese-American, whose father is a Chinese merchant. The role affords him the opportunity of bringing out with great power the conflict between the white and the yellow in the young student's temperament and the ultimate triumph of the former.

Norma Talmadge at Madison.

A very powerful photodrama is "Panthea" the Selznick Pictures production, starring Norma Talmadge, which will be presented at the Madison Theatre tomorrow and Saturday. It deals with a very unusual theme and raises a question of some daring and importance.

"The Bird of Paradise."

Never was there a story written and presented to the stage that carried the appeal that Richard Walton Tully has given to the little Hawaiian Princess Luanna in "The Bird of Paradise," which will be the first of the season's attractions to be offered by the management of the Royal Alexandra Theatre, beginning Monday evening, Aug. 26. Reserved seats will be placed on sale next Thursday at the theatre box office.

The 71st Regiment Band.

No band ever brought to Toronto by Manager Solman of Hanlan's Point has won recognition or gained friends as has Lieut. Lambert L. Eben and his solo band of the 71st Regiment, New York, who are playing two concerts daily at Toronto's favorite amusement resort, Hanlan's Point. A new coloratturist was presented to local musical lovers in Miss Gertrude Graves. Lieut. Eben and his band will play two concerts daily, rain or shine, for the balance of the week.
