

ELSON M'KAY WINS VICTORY LOAN RACE

Another Protest is Lodged for Motor-Pacing — Huge Crowd Present.

The Victory Loan Bicycle Road race for the Dunlop prize was run yesterday afternoon on the Kingston road in ideal bicycling weather.

There were many thousands of lovers of the bike game on hand, notwithstanding the fact that the street car men were also celebrating.

There were many exciting finishes, the most notable of which was between the two cracks, Harold Bounnell and Jas. Lowry, but as in former events this season Bounnell just snatched the time prize by a couple of lengths. The following are the results:

1. E. McKay, Classic.
2. V. Bolton, Classic.
3. D. Ford, Classic.
4. H. Macdonald, H.M.B.C.
5. E. J. Ferry, Classic, and this was the time prize.
6. P. Blackmore, Victoria.
7. H. Hasken, Victoria.
8. P. Cassidy, Classic.
9. S. Taylor, Victoria.
10. A. Radcliffe, H.M.B.C.
11. D. Patterson, Classic.
12. L. Fisher, Victoria.
13. Tom Ford, Classic.
14. Roy Smith, Victoria.
15. D. McCarroll, Broadway.
16. B. Rodgers, H.M.B.C.
17. J. Valcart, Broadway.
18. A. Johnston, Classic.
19. J. Dillow, Classic.
20. F. Boulens, Broadway.
21. H. Martin, Broadway.
22. Geo. Wright, Classic.
23. Ralph Smith, Victoria.
24. M. Hannom, Classic.
25. H. E. Bounnell, Classic.
26. Jas. Lowry, Classic.
27. H. Pickett, Classic.
28. E. Taylor, H.M.B.C.
29. E. Bailey, H.M.B.C.
30. J. Mott, Classic.

The time prize went to Harold Bounnell, whose time was 51 min. 30 sec.

There was a protest lodged against the winner for motor pacing, and this will be considered on Tuesday evening by the committee.

Immediately after the race the wheelmen formed a procession and proceeded to the city to Queen's Park in the effort to honor the Victory Loan. A large decorated truck bearing the letters "Follow this Dunlop Company's Example" was cheered time and again in the route through the city. There were four large decorated trucks bearing the names of Classic, Victoria, Broadway and H.M.B.C. and many flags.

The arrangements were admirably carried out by the secretaries, Messrs. Alexander and J. H. Duggett, ably assisted by F. A. G. Johnson, R. Falconer, Controller R. H. Cameron, E. Andrews, Ralph Smith, and H. Colclough.

SOCCER SCORES

The City Playgrounds soccer season is drawing to a close. On Saturday Carlton Park and McCormick took up in the Senior League at Perth Square, and the Park boys must win or the Maccs have the league. In the Intermediate League, the Carlton Park team are champions. McCormick and Leslie Grove have each won their sections, and play at Harbor Square for the championship in the section game. Leslie Grove play O'Neill at Harbor Square, and McCormick play Carlton Park at Perth Square. The following are the results of Saturday's games:

Intermediate League—Carlton Park.....1 O'Neill.....1
Carlton Park.....1 McCormick.....1
Junior League—Carlton Park.....1 St. Andrews.....1
Leslie Grove.....1

A special of the T. & D. senior delegates will be held this evening in S.O.B. to decide as to the best method of finishing the schedule.

NATIONAL LEAGUE READY FOR FRAY

Saturday's National Hockey League meeting in Montreal found all three clubs on a sound basis and ready for the bell. It was pointed out by this paper some few weeks ago that Ted Coy had loaned exclusive hockey privileges at the Ottawa Arena to the Ottawa Hockey Club for five years. Coy had this loan on the table at Saturday's meeting. The Toronto Arena team showed a lease for the local rink, and Kennedy assured the delegates that he is not having any trouble in Montreal. Percy Quinn was given forty-eight hours to state whether he would operate his Shamrock franchise. Nothing has been heard from President Calder on the result.

The coast rule of no offense in centre ice will be a new stunt in the N.H.L. this year. It is claimed that it speeds up the game. A real penalty system that will work on the offense and the defense is in vogue. This means that pro hockey fans are being catered to, and the game should be even better this year.

Manager Chas. Querrie of the Arena team stated that he is having no trouble in signing his players. He will trot out a nice looking squad at the first of the month for the first practice session.

THE GERMAN AS A SPORT

The Kaiser has always posed as a sport.

He thought he was a yachtsman, and he sought to transplant the spirit of British sportsmanship to his own waters.

Many a British throb-33 has been taken to Germany; many a hunter, groom, trainer, racing and even polo.

English sporting clothes and swagget; the father of German philosophy, Immanuel Kant, was the descendant of a Scotch haggis-maker named Kant, lured to Germany near two hundred years ago to show them how to outfit a horse; they got to ride horses eventually in a showy way, tho they over-disciplined their animals by cavalry regiments and masters of the horse; and dear old Lord Londonderry of the Olympia Horse Show got himself into disfavor by his alliance with the Kaiser. And it was pretty much the same all along the line of British sport.

Sporting Gossip

After 4½ years anxious waiting the war is over and normal times may be expected in sport as in everything else. What will come back? Everything except the kind of horse races that we used to have.

There will be more boxing than ever before. The men like it; the people want it and the law will allow it.

There was never any objection to baseball, the best of all organized professional sports. Toronto has surely earned a place in the big show, wants to get in and would be welcomed.

Too late now to organize senior Rugby football, but it will be stronger than ever next autumn.

The amateur swimmers, sailors and paddlers have earned their place in the swim and the first year after the Kaiser was chased to where he belongs will see aquatics back again in greater volume.

Not as to racing. Some of it was acceptable to the ordinary observer and there was a lot that was impossible. Oh, the legislation was for the duration of the war and you may look for the same old whiffing. But try and forget it. It is to be hoped there will be enough legitimate tracks, but not too many, where we may have a look at and take a flier on runners like those owned by Commander Ross and some others.

After a strenuous day's shooting Giles returned to the house alone. Now, Giles was only an amateur at the game, and this fact was well known to the anxious host.

"Have you shot anything?" he demanded of Giles, expecting to hear the worst.

"Don't know," replied Giles. "I will have to wait until the rest of the party come in, and then we can call the roll."

There is a thought that arises in the mind of practically every boy who goes to fight for his country. He thinks: "If I am wounded, I wonder which wounds prefer to lose—a leg or an arm?"

There is a thought that arises in the mind of a man who has lost just the part of his anatomy that is of most use to him. One of the saddest whims of fortune is a war overtook Punch Wilson, an English boxer. He was in the Royal Field Artillery in action in France for three years before he "got his." Just before he was wounded he won the middle and heavyweight championships of the brigade. His wounds necessitated the amputation of both arms. Shortly after he was invalided home he slipped on the steps of his home and, being unable to help him, he was injured so badly that he died.

Hold there is the story of another major baseball league player who has been actually at the front. He was not west. He was there all right, but the chronicler forgets to give his name.

Uncle's "over there" has a different meaning "over there," says the narrator. Here's the way an American soldier, for eight years a major league baseball player, puts it: "Let me tell you that any guy who says he ain't afraid the first time he is under fire either hasn't got brains enough to be a first-liner or is a plain liar. I've stepped into a few ones in my career, but I never let a fellow know I was scared. I even Walter Johnson couldn't drive me away from the plate."

"But I'm here to tell you that the first night I was under fire I was worse scared than bush league pitcher in an exhibition game with three men on and Ty Cobb up swinging three bats."

After that, however, explains the former baseball star, you sort of get control of yourself, your knees decide that it isn't so bad, and you pitch in on your own account."

FOUR TEAMS FOR THE MAITLANDS THIS YEAR

Will Be Represented in the O.H.A. Junior Series—Elect Officers.

Maitlands will be represented in the O.H.A. this year with a junior club. The north-end club held an organization meeting last evening and elected officers for the season. In addition to the O.H.A. outfit Maitlands will enter three teams in the Seachess League.

The O.H.A. team will be composed of players from the Seachess League. The Maitlands are not sitting up nights to land O.H.A. stars, and believe that plenty of material can be developed from the big out-door league.

Ice has been secured at the Arena, and the Maitlands are just waiting for the order to practice.

The officers elected last night are: Hon. President, Jas. Stevenson; president, Chas. Coady; first vice-president, Louis Travis; second vice-president, A. E. Canavan; secretary, McNeil; treasurer, David Mitchell; manager, Frank Coombe; executive committee, Messrs. Grotas, Canavan, Thompson, McNeil; delegates to O.H.A. Chas. Coady and Frank Coombe.
