

325-BROADVIEW AVENUE—Deliciously cooked, softening and overlooking River parkers are protected by building restrictions from inferior houses being erected on the H. H. Williams & Co., 26 Victoria St.

SENATE ROOM
JANUARY 5th
SENATE P O

TWENTY-SIX

TEN PAGES—WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 8 1905—TEN PAGES

WANTS NO CORPORATION JOCKEY

"Maltese Cross"
Rubbers

ONE CENT

HEARS RUNS SO CLOSELY HE MAY UPSET ADVERSE VOTE

ELECTION IN DOUBT

With Majority of 3000 For Mc-Clellan, Municipal Ownership Party Claim Proof of 50,000 Fraudulent Votes Cast by Tammany—Hearst Pledges
Himself to Fight the Issue Out.

JEROME'S MAJORITY IS 8000
"GOOD GOVERNMENT" TRIUMPHS

New York, Nov. 7.—Returns to midnight indicate that George B. Mc-Clellan, Democrat, is re-elected mayor of New York by between 3000 and 4000 plurality over W. R. Hearst, municipal ownership, and that Wm. T. Jerome, independent, is re-elected district attorney by about 8000 over James W. Or-borne, Democrat.

At midnight Mr. Hearst declined to admit his defeat, and declared his intention to contest the election. At that time the returns from 184 election districts had not been received. Mc-Clellan had 295,588, Hearst 293,570, and Jerome 190,228 votes.

The following statement was issued at midnight by Mr. Hearst:

"WE HAVE WON THE ELECTION. ALL TAMMANY'S FRAUDS, ALL TAMMANY'S CORRUPTION, ALL TAMMANY'S INTIMIDATION AND VIOLENCE, ALL TAMMANY'S FALSE REGISTRATION, IL-LEGAL VOTING AND DIS-RESPECT FOR THE CONSTITUTION HAVE BEEN OVERCOME BY A GREAT POPULAR MAJORITY. THE RE-COUNT WILL SHOW THAT WE HAVE WON THE ELECTION BY MANY THOUSANDS OF VOTES."
"I SHALL FIGHT THIS BATTLE TO THE END, IN BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE CAST THEIR VOTES FOR ME, AND WHO SHALL NOT BE DEFRANCHED BY ANY EFFORT OF CRIMINAL BOSSES."

"WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST," In New York County, the Municipal Ownership League endorsed a number of the Republican candidates for the state assembly, and late returns indicated that the Democrats had lost 12 assemblies from this county.

Max Ihmsen of the Municipal League said to-night that the league had evidence of 50,000 illegal votes having been discovered in all five boroughs, and that the law committee of the league is gathering all the evidence. Mr. Ihmsen also announced that all the candidates in all boroughs on the Municipal Ownership ticket had been asked to assemble at Mr. G. Hearst's office in the Hoffman House for an all night conference on Wednesday.

An unprecedented fight.
So close was the contest that up to 11 o'clock the results were not known.
At that time indications were that McClellan had been re-elected for a four year term, and that Jerome, independent, had been re-elected district attorney. The extent to which the Tammany organization was re-elected was not known, but it was no fusion of the opposition parties, the means by which the organization was re-elected were not known, but that Jerome, running as a candidate no party and with his record in office his platform, succeeded in overcoming the former prestige of the democratic organization, and Hearst standing as the Municipal Ownership League, a new factor in the New York politics, came within a few thousand votes of being elected mayor.

Bird S. Coler was elected borough president of the Municipal Ownership League, and Hearst carried that borough by a plurality of 5425.

Hearst's large vote shows that the Municipal Ownership League must be reckoned with in all future municipal politics. Coler's election as president of the borough of Brooklyn gives the league representation on the board of estimate and apportionment, which has control of the city's expenditures.
It is estimated that this board will direct the outlay of $90,000,000 during the next fiscal year.

PHILADELPHIA REDEEMED LANDSLIDE FOR REFORM

Majority of Weaver's City Party Over Republican "Ring" Placed at 65,000.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Philadelphia has been swept by the reform movement, the city party winning by a surprisingly large majority.

While returns from only six of the 42 wards in this city had been counted up to midnight, enough is known of the result in the remaining wards to indicate the defeat of the Republican local ticket from 60,000 to 75,000 plurality.

The victory of the city party carries with it the election of William H.
Berry, the Democratic reform candidate for state treasurer, J. Lee Plummer, the Republican candidate for that office, was badly cut throughout the city and state, and he has lost his own county, which is usually Republican.

Contrary to general expectations, there were no very serious disturbances in the city today. The police department was at all times master of the situation, and wherever trouble was started it was quickly stopped.

Draged by a Car.
Man Has a Close Call for Life and Limbs.
Dragged 20 feet at the rear of a King-street car last night, Mr. Legner of 357 East Queen-street, narrowly escaped instant death beneath the wheels of the trailer.

He was alighting from the car, and several others getting off forced him from the step. He grabbed the back of the car and would certainly have been crushed to death had not two of the passengers held him till the car stopped.

It was, many of the passengers thought he had been killed, but his volubility concerning all matters connected with the Municipal Railway Company reassured them.

OLD MAN YORK: Like to ride for my stable, eh? Well, I'd think about it if I didn't know that the men for whom you have been riding are the men who stab you to me—and that they have all their money up against my horse.

NEATNESS AND DESPATCH IN THIS OTTAWA WEDDING

Young Cousin of Earl Grey and Daughter of Poet Campbell Married by Themselves.

Ottawa, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Considerable interest has been aroused in Ottawa by the announcement of the marriage of Miss Margery Berridge Campbell, eldest daughter of Wm. Grey, the groom, to the son of Prof. Grey, formerly on the staff of the Ottawa University, and is the second cousin of Lady Minto and Earl Grey. He is 22 years of age and the bride but 19.

They were provisionally engaged with the consent of the bride's parents, but it was understood that they were not to be married for two years. In the meantime the bride was to go abroad and study art. The Grey family left for New York, so the young couple decided to get married early last week.

Mr. Grey called at the home of the bride on Monday morning, Oct. 20. She went out with him and her mother bought the bride's trousseau. He grabbed her and they returned they announced that they had been married.
The ceremony was performed at noon at the home of Rev. E. McCaulay, 272 Albert-street. The groom went to New York, as had been arranged, but the bride is still at her home here.

MONTREAL FOR PROTECTION.
C. M. A. Not Altogether Prepared to Present Its Case.
Montreal, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The opening session of the tariff commission began in the board of trade today. The different firms and interests were given an average of 15 minutes each, and from the beginning to the end of the morning session the schedule was arranged working with clock-like regularity. Hon. W. S. Fielding acted as chairman. Sir Richard Cartwright was not present as anticipated.

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.
Lord's Day Alliance, Toronto branch, annual meeting.
Third Ward Conservatives, annual meeting, St. Paul's Hall, 8 p.m.
Alexandria Court, L. O. F., at home, Temple Building, 8 p.m.
Concert, St. James' Cathedral, 8 p.m.
Frank Yetch on "Public Speaking," Central Y. M. C. A., 7 p.m.
Princess, "The Duke of Killaranagh," David Harum, "2-8." Melodie, "Her First False Step," 2-8.
New's, Vaudeville, 2-8.
New's, Burlesque, 2-8.
Conqueror Cigar, 10c for 5c. Ballard.
If Not, Why Not?
Have you accident and sickness policy? See Walter H. Blight, Confederation Life Building. Phone M. 2770. 125

YOUTH BRUTALLY USED MYSTERY IN ASSAULT

Attacked by Three Men and Maimed —Suspects Arrested and Crowd Threatens Violence.

St. Thomas, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—This city and district is stirred to theynchpoint by a crime at Springfield.

The story told by the victim, Richmond Beck, is that he was going to the woods on his mother farm to work when he was accosted by three tramp who were sitting on the fence. They asked him his name, and he gave it as most country youths will. Then he asked their names. The oldest one replied "Baldwin." The tramps asked where they could get a drink of water, and were told by Beck, who went with them to get a drink. On coming back Baldwin started to lift a log at one end, and then Beck lifted. Then Baldwin lifted the whole log. Then he returned to the log and started to lift it again, and started to wrestle with him.
He threw Beck three times. On going down the third time Beck, in some manner, struck Baldwin on the shin accidently, whereupon Baldwin got mad. He grabbed Beck and threw him, and sat upon him, while the younger man drew a knife and emasculated the lad. The three men then walked away, Baldwin remarking, "Guess you are a good boy."

He said to M. Petrunkevitch: "I find myself confronted by a mighty ocean and with only a cork shell on shore. You say this boat will carry me across to the other shore and I am just returned here only to find that there is no other craft in sight."
The count added that he believed, "If Christ were at head of government, opposition wouldn't believe him," he says.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—Count Witte has definitely pledged himself to support the plan for the convocation of a constituent assembly when the doublets if a single representative ruled the nation. He is exceedingly anxious to see the present juncture the only means to introduce the new regime in a complete and loyal spirit as General Trepoff.

London, Nov. 7.—Elkan Adler, brother of Chief Rabbi Adler of London, who has just returned here from St.
Petersburg, said to-night:
Count Witte is the only man standing behind the Jewish residents of this city meeting with terrible opposition from the reactionaries, who are also directly responsible for the massacre in Russia, Russia. Count Witte is distinctly sympathetic to the Jews.

WHITE COMPLAINS BITTERLY HAS NO ONE TO HELP HIM

"If Christ Were at Head of Government, Opposition Wouldn't Believe Him," He Says.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—Count Witte
has definitely pledged himself to support the plan for the convocation of
a constituent assembly when the dou-
blets if a single representative ruled
the nation. He is exceedingly anxious to see the present juncture the only means to introduce the new regime in a complete and loyal spirit as General Trepoff.

London, Nov. 7.—Elkan Adler, brother of Chief Rabbi Adler of London,
who has just returned here from St.
Petersburg, said to-night:
Count Witte is the only man standing
behind the Jewish residents of this city
meeting with terrible opposition from
the reactionaries, who are also directly
responsible for the massacre in Russia, Russia. Count Witte is distinctly sympathetic to the Jews.

New York, Nov. 7.—At a mass meeting of Jewish residents of this city held in Temple Emanuel to-day, $50,000 was collected for the relief of the suffering Jews in Russia, and a relief committee was formally organized, with Oscar S. Strauss, former minister to Turkey, as president; Cyrus Sulzberger, secretary, and Jacob H.
Schiff, treasurer.

The movement in London is in the hands of Lord Rothschild, in Perth of the Jewish Colonial Association, and in Berlin of the Berliner Hilverein.
A despatch from Paul Nathan, vice-president of the latter organization, announced that he would start at once for Russia. It is proposed to distribute the money collected by the movement thru the diplomatic agencies of Great Britain.

Funerals at Odessa.
Odessa, Nov. 7.—Four hundred and twenty Jews, victims of the massacre of last week, were buried to-day. A majority of the shops were closed, including many of those belonging to Christians. Similar funerals will continue for three days. On each grave wreaths were placed, bearing the inscription:
"Martyrs to the Faith—Victims of the Autocracy."
Mobs have completely devastated, plundered and burned all the Jewish houses in the suburb of Danik. In the large village of Severinivsk, and Ana-tolivka, and the Towns of Ovidopol, Malaki, Akkerman, Atakies, Olviopol, and many other places, persons are reported to have been killed and many wounded.

MOTHERWELL TAKES PAPERS FROM LOCKIE WILSON'S COAT

Sensation at Saskatchewan Election Meeting—Coat Was Also Taken, But Returned.

Indian Head, Sask., Nov. 7.—(Special.) —A sensation has been caused here by an incident at a meeting at Abernethy, called in the interests of Hon. W. B.
Motherwell, minister of agriculture, when the latter took papers from the overcoat of J. Lockie Wilson, president of the Ontario Farmers' Association, which had been left hanging in the hall.
Subsequent use of the private papers by Motherwell provoked a dramatic ex-posure by Wilson, and effectually broke up the meeting.

Wilson, together with McArthur of the Indian Head, drove up to the hotel, and during supper the former's overcoat was taken away, together with its contents, of private documents and campaign speeches. The coat was brought back by George Bowell, secretary of the local Liberal Association, from Motherwell, but the papers were missing.

At the meeting, however, Motherwell pulled out a document which Wilson recognized, and demanded, and then former finally handed it over, saying:
"I know I did wrong, taking it from the coat of J. Lockie Wilson, but I used, in which Motherwell appealed to the chairman, saying: "What shall I do now? The meeting broke up with cheers for Haultain and the local candidate. A dead set has been made on Lockie Wilson as "butter-in" from Ontario.

Charged with Manslaughter.
Harry Seace Will Stand Trial for Denying Child Medicinal Care.
Shelburne, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—County Crown Attorney McKay of Orangeville has set the machinery of the law in motion against Harry Seace, the Melancton Township "Church of God" faith healer, whose two-year-old daughter, Sarah Adeline, died from dipthery in July last, from lack of medical attention.

To-day Seace appeared for trial before Magistrate Rutherford of Shelburne, charged with manslaughter.
Mr. McKay appeared for the crown.
Seace had no lawyer and no witnesses.
The witnesses for the crown were Dr.
W. H. McKay, J. H. Johnson, J. H. Johnson, Riverview, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell and Miss Sarah May Hays.
The accused put in no defence and was committed to stand his trial for manslaughter at the county sessions of Orangeville on Wednesday, December 7.
He is now out on bail, himself for $2000 and his brother-in-law, William Campbell, one of the witnesses, for the prosecution, for $1000.

DOCTOR A FUR THIEF.
Winnipeg Physician Under Arrest—$10,000 in Goods Recovered.
Winnipeg, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Sensational developments to the big fur robbery of Brown's store some time ago occurred to-day when Dr. Peterson, previously arrested while trying to sell worth of stolen goods, the police locating the remainder in his apartments, to the extent of $15,000.

Struck by a Car.
John Mackenzie, However, Gets Off With Few Slight Wounds.
John McKenzie, 32 LaPlante-avenue, at midnight while crossing in front Yonge-street car at Gouard-street, was struck. He was taken on the car as far as Wellesley-street, looking for an open drug store.
There he was turned over to a policeman, who summoned the ambulance.
He was taken to St. Michael's.
His head is cut and face scratched.

NO TRUTH IN IT.
(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 7.—The report called from New York that the C.P.R. has come into the hands of J. P. Morgan and J. J. Hill is denied here on the highest authority.

Temperance Mass Meeting Not of One Mind on Policy to Adopt, But Finally Votes for Moderate Campaign—Churches Accused of Lack of Energy in the Cause.

It was a contest between sentiment and cold calculation at last night's mass meeting of the Dominion Alliance, held in the assembly room of Massey Hall.
The issue was one between supporters of a "thin end of the wedge" policy, as summed up in the effort to get a reduction in the number of hotel licenses, and a demand for the drastic measure of local option. The moderate course won after two hours' discussion, not always amicable, by a vote of 112 to 46, as shown by the ballot. President G. F. Marter presided, and on the platform were: The mayor, Conton Spence, Ald. Hay, T. C. Peaks and Rev.
W. F. Wilson.

Controller Spence said the cause was making good progress, and appealed against trying to get local option just now for Toronto, as defeat was certain and the effect would be to drive the cause through the country. Local option had carried in 27 out of 37 places where it was submitted, but the polling in favor showed a falling off from the vote for the referendums of three per cent., while the liquor vote decreased 18 per cent. Toronto had given a majority of 1629 for the referendum, but "local option would be buried by no less than 5000 votes," declared the speaker. They should wait until there was the sweep of victory all over the province before tackling Toronto. They were, however, ripe for the reduction of licenses.
Wm. Munns was against the license reduction idea as ineffective. He wanted to make a somewhat roundabout approach toward local option by submitting the question to the people who they were willing to vote on a local option bylaw.

For an S-Hour Day.
T. S. Matheson made an impassioned plea that the fight turn on the local option issue. He did not see any use in reducing the number of licenses, claiming that Toronto with 200 hotels had more convictions last year on the charge of drunkenness than had Montreal with its 1200. Several ministers had told him, he declared, in opposition to T. S. Spence's argument, that if the bylaw were made one for local option it would sweep the city on January 1 in July last, from lack of placuse. The speaker went on to claim that the time had never been so opportune.

"I would not go to the corner to vote for license reduction," he asserted, forgetting to mention his own explanation of disent. Toronto had never had a worse year than last for a record of drunkenness and next year the showing would be still worse. The speaker said he would support a move to have the saloons closed at 4 p.m., giving them an eight-hour day. This was backed up by a later speaker, who suggested that Campbell, one of the witnesses, for the prosecution, for $1000.

President McCrae of Cooke's Church Brotherhood wanted to know what effect the passing of a resolution would have, and was assured by the chairman that the city council would be influenced in its action thereby.

Time Too Short.
Father Minehan was greeted with cheers and enthusiasm. He spoke calmly as one who had weighed the situation. He was against a present fight for local option, and did not share the enthusiasm of the previous speakers. He said if it would die out if the battle were not fought now. The churches, he said, would have their energies taken up till Nov. 20 with the census, and this would leave a bare month to carry on a contest. It was, however, a sweeping sense had to be used.

Certain ministers might have talked of carrying everything before them, but in the North Toronto campaign only five out of thirty-five churches were represented at committee meetings, and there wasn't much to be got but sympathy from them.

Get the Council First.
First of all, get the right kind of action. If the city council will not admission received with much cordiality, "If the right men aren't in, they won't be given to those who suppose."

Continued on Page 2.

Wanted for Fewer Licenses Local Option Sure Loser

It was a contest between sentiment
and cold calculation at last night's mass
meeting of the Dominion Alliance, held in the assembly room of Massey Hall.
The issue was one between supporters
of a "thin end of the wedge" policy, as
summed up in the effort to get a reduction in the number of hotel licenses,
and a demand for the drastic measure
of local option. The moderate course
won after two hours' discussion, not always amicable, by a vote of 112 to 46, as shown by the ballot. President
G. F. Marter presided, and on the platform were: The mayor, Conton Spence, Ald. Hay, T. C. Peaks and Rev.
W. F. Wilson.

Controller Spence said the cause was
making good progress, and appealed
against trying to get local option just
now for Toronto, as defeat was certain
and the effect would be to drive the
cause through the country. Local option had carried in 27 out of 37 places where it
was submitted, but the polling in favor
showed a falling off from the vote for
the referendums of three per cent., while the liquor vote decreased 18 per cent. Toronto had given a majority
of 1629 for the referendum, but "local option would be buried by no less than 5000 votes," declared the speaker. They should wait until there was the sweep
of victory all over the province before
tackling Toronto. They were, however, ripe for the reduction of licenses.
Wm. Munns was against the license reduction idea as ineffective. He wanted to make a somewhat roundabout
approach toward local option by submitting the question to the people who
they were willing to vote on a local option bylaw.

For an S-Hour Day.
T. S. Matheson made an impassioned plea that the fight turn on the local option issue. He did not see any use
in reducing the number of licenses,
claiming that Toronto with 200 hotels
had more convictions last year on the charge of drunkenness than had Montreal with its 1200. Several ministers
had told him, he declared, in opposition to T. S. Spence's argument, that if the bylaw were made one for local
option it would sweep the city on January 1 in July last, from lack of
placuse. The speaker went on to claim that the time had never been so oppor-
tune.

"I would not go to the corner to vote
for license reduction," he asserted, for-
getting to mention his own explanation of
disent. Toronto had never had a worse
year than last for a record of drunkenness and next year the showing would
be still worse. The speaker said he would support a move to have the saloons closed at 4 p.m., giving them an eight-hour day. This was backed up
by a later speaker, who suggested that Campbell, one of the witnesses, for the prosecution, for $1000.

President McCrae of Cooke's Church
Brotherhood wanted to know what
effect the passing of a resolution would
have, and was assured by the chair-
man that the city council would be influenced in its action thereby.

Time Too Short.
Father Minehan was greeted with
cheers and enthusiasm. He spoke calmly as one who had weighed the situation. He
was against a present fight for local
option, and did not share the enthusiasm of the previous speakers. He said
if it would die out if the battle were
not fought now. The churches, he said,
would have their energies taken up till
Nov. 20 with the census, and this would
leave a bare month to carry on a contest. It was, however, a sweeping sense
had to be used.

Certain ministers might have talked
of carrying everything before them, but
in the North Toronto campaign only
five out of thirty-five churches were
represented at committee meetings, and
there wasn't much to be got but sympathy from them.

Get the Council First.
First of all, get the right kind of
action. If the city council will not admission received with much cordiality, "If the right men aren't in,
they won't be given to those who
suppose."

Continued on Page 2.

the finest delighted ned up in ample and English single-breasted suits, a large from. At Linage day... 7.95

ark grey tweeds, back, also plain sterfield style, s, sizes 25-32,
... 3.95

Unr Men

advantages. esn't apply icular suits of ordinary

that's how

ool Combina-
ner weights, double-breasted hioned, sizes nd $5... 2.50
buttoned cuffs,
... 63

Suit

le, brass-plated 22... 1.89
ide on English nide, full lined 50... 3.95 selected grain
th, with pocket,
... 6.95

tout

and rain

sense run thick soled stout styles at will keep and look while.

the Men's s, suitable for common sense soles. This is pecial... 1.49

is about complicity for occu-accommodate