After putting away the game with the Saints and a large supply of eatables the juniors were ready to listen to anything that had to be said, and before the gathering broke up there was a whole lot enunciated.

Fresident A. A. Langford of the Y. M. C. A. presided and called on Corps. Gordon Scott and Walter Neale for aduct, which was all to the merry.

W. R. Yendall, who came next, made the boys blush at all the nice things he said about them. He also presented them with sweaters on behalf of the directors and some of the business men of the association. London was being put anew on the Y. M. C. A Fair Game.

"Mr. Taylor has been a good loser in the past and he is certainly a good winner," said Dr. Neville, "He and his team have won the championship, through no trickery, but by good clean honest sport. The boys played fast and clean and used good headwork." He hoped that he was presenting the cup to them for more than one year.

A. T. Taylor, who replied to the presentation, stated it had been his ambition since coming to London to have basketball played on the same standard as it was in other cities. The local teams had been beaten by large scores, but each year the score had dwindled till last year the "Y" had May 24, Queen's Park LONDON.

IN WOODBINE MUD

Dyment Horses Arrive Ready for Business—11 Fast Ones in String.

Toronto, May 7.—The horses worked over a heavy, holding track at the Woodbine this morning, and naturally the time recorded seems on the slow side. Nevertheless a few fair perform-A juniors champions, were royally banquetted last night at the "Y" and incidentally presented with the championship cup, sweaters, medals for winning the city league honors and their own beautiful "phizogs."

Before indulging in the classy line of eats on the bill-of-fare the boys sailed into the St. Thomas seniors and walked away with the game 22—6. Alfogether it was some evening and most enjoyable from beginning to end.
